I hope the visit to the Empty Chamber at the Equinox was useful.

I have word from Desiccation, that as a result of your year of suffering you are being invited to The Darkest Chamber.

It will open for you, from the Hall of Worlds at a quarter past 11 on the Sunday morning of the Equinox. You will not be alone, but you should not seek to find out who will be travelling with you, and should bring no one yourself.

I don't recall a time The Darkest Chamber has been opened to an Imperial Citizen. Long before Britta's time at least. And so I have no advice for you. Expect nothing and be ready to answer the most difficult questions.
