

To the Senator Avisena i Kharizmi i Guerra,

I trust you survived the journey back through the wild hills of Kalino back to Segura.

I write to inform you of my intention to claim the Ducal seat of Kalino for House Guiscard.

Following our conversation on the evening of the wedding I believe that I am best suited of the three houses who are currently aiming to claim the seat.

Whilst I can not offer armies in aid of the Empire, nor any direct aid at this point in time. I can, however, offer a willing ally against those wild beasts with any information I receive being passed on to you.

In order to assure my victory I may have need of you and your acquaintances in the coming year.

If you wish to reply to this then you may send one of the accursed winged missives o my priest Jean-Armand who resides within my own keep.

Yours,
Baron Harold Guiscard
Kalino
