

Greetings Tadhg McDorcha

My name is Anya of Highguard, I am an agent for The Hungry Wolf, The Tomb King, the Eternal also known as Sorin.

I have asked friends in the Imperial Civil Service and in Inns and Hostelries across the Empire, if they know of relative newcomers to Anvil who own Dragonbone Forests.

Your name has been mentioned.

And so I invite you.

Exquy, Herald of The Hungry Wolf is currently running the Trials of the Pallid Charm. You cannot enter, they began back at the Autumn Equinox.

But the next step in the trials includes Dragonbone and so your forests might be useful.

You may find you wish to assist the participants in the trials, or oppose them. Or you may simply wish the Heralds of the Empty Chamber to know your name.

Should you wish to – meet me and my friend Agnes in the Imperial Senate at 8 on the first evening of this Spring Equinox.

Should you not wish to attend, there is no shame or worry, I will not disturb you again.

Anya
