

To the esteemed House,

It is my pleasure to confirm the attendance of the diamond of the Northern Alliance, Prince Nika Matejka and the silver Prince of the Eastern Alliance, Prince Saša Baník.

The Princes shall enter Anvil at 17:00 on the Saturday of the summit, accompanied by a guest who has been residing in the Tassatan Lodge and is familiar with the Empire.

The Princes shall, as was discussed, be presented with the finest honeymoon celebration the Empire has to offer. By 20:00 they must retire for the voyage home. In return for your grace, they bring a gift for your house. They shall also carry means in case of further expenditure.

Please receive also my personal gratitude for your role in the union of these Princes.

Yours,

*Jindra Kovac
Assistant of the Magician Princes of the House of Baník*
