

Skar,

Let us meet at last.

During the coming Solstice – late on Saturday night in fact – I have secured the use of the Lashonar's Caucus Forum. It is a place where rivals might meet and converse safely, under the Peace of the Forum.

It is a place of discussion, and of negotiation, under the aegis of that powerful Eternal. You will have surety of safety against me, and I will be protected against you.

If you wish to attend, or to send one in your stead, come to your Hall of the Worlds one half hour after midnight.

We will talk.

If you bring with you the details of the Dance of Navarr and Thorn then you may petition for my favour. Provide me with a full ritual text and I will favour you greatly.

If you do not bring the ritual, or details of its performance and power, you may still win my favour as I have said before. Provide me with the locations and strengths of the human armies so that I may share it with the Het and the Buruk Tepel, and thus advance the status of my House among them.

Ghulai Greenmask