

To Ivanbrok of the Shattered Tower,

I write to you on behalf of the Iron Duke Barien, concerning your challenge.

As Revel should have informed you, it is as follows:

Salvage a trove of theatrical masks from the deserted island of Sinas, and ensure they are passed on to worthy owners.

You should find a conjunction to Sinas Island, in the region of Uccelini, Sarvos, at 9:15pm on Friday of this Summer Solstice.

*When setting the challenge we underestimated the number of enemies you could encounter on the island.
To attempt it with one chaptermate and 10 League fighters would be impressive, but also possibly deadly.
So, up to 20 people may take up the conjunction. At least half must be from the League for the challenge to be considered successful.*

If successful, your reward will be presented in Autumn.

Signed, Filigree, herald of the Iron Duke
