

Empress Lisabetta,

This is a report on those Imperial citizens who chose to assist Asavea against their rebellious satrapies. The information contained within is from first hand witnesses.

In total roughly six hundred troops went to Asavea, following the orders of five citizens who attend the Anvil summit.

From the nation of Wintermark went Aluthuseer, of the Iron Fangs, who sent a force of one hundred from Hahnmark.

From the nation of the Brass Coast went Diégo, of the family Zabala, who sent a force of one hundred from Segura.

From the nation of Dawn went three forces:

Hennan de Gideon, of house Gideon, sent a force of one hundred strength from Weirwater.

Olivier du Stanier, earl of du Stanier which is a banner house to de Montrose, sent a force of one hundred strength from Astolat.

Maryc the Castellan of Spiral Castle, of house Orzel, sent a force of two hundred strength from Weirwater.

There should be no doubt that these individuals sent these forces to aid the Asaveans in their fight against the rebels. It is unsure what their role was, the expectation is that they were kept away from any active fighting, taking the role of peacekeepers and guards.

Yours,

Lilith the Watchful

Hedra, Hedrossan, Necropolis