

Kali

This is a gift, for you to use as you see fit.

Of course, you may struggle to unleash it this season – your generals have failed you and the whole of Sermersuaq is now under the iron boot of the Jotun – but that is not our problem. It will remain in perpetuity until it is unleashed and perhaps at some future juncture you may wish to bring the Bound King's punishing presence upon the land of lakes.

Or perhaps you might find someone in Sermersuaq who can cast it on your behalf?
