

At the First Mine – Ritual Responses

On the area

Clear Lens of the Eternal River

This site was once a mined area called Krevatsy Moy or Red Mine.

The mine collapsed at the beginning of the Orc rebellion

An Orc named Thrace climbed out of the mine and Swore an Oath that they would keep a bargain

On the cart –

Divination version of Detect Magic – You need thorough insight to gain information it is not magical, but it does have a skein of years

Bright Lantern – as divination

Skein of Years -You see a cart being emptied near the top of a mine shaft, moments before there is a great noise and shaking of the earth and the ground begins to collapse.

The planks are lodged at the top of a low opening which reaches steeply towards one of the tunnels in the broken and crushed mine. A slave orc uses them to pull himself out of the mine. Once in daylight he holds them up the sky with one hand, a battered tankard in the other.

"This bargain I will keep" he says, before dropping the planks, shaking the soil from the tankard and walking resolutely away.
