

Senator, Wise politician of our people. I wish to meet with you at my army's camp, in Weirmoor, Weirwater, Dawn during the coming Winter Solstice, one hour before midnight on the Saturday. I have asked several others to attend, the Boyar of Dark Heart Vale, the Dean of the Lyceum, Hubert Gremani and the Archmage of Winter. You may each bring a single guest to my audience with you. Meet with me, I would be pleased to welcome you to my camp. Listen to what I offer to those whose lives have become tangled with my own. Listen and know that I stand as a Courageous citizen of Varushka and one who will defend Karsk. It was I and my cabal of the Well of Hearts that first called forth spirits of Winter to defend our land. It was a young general who commanded the Iron Helms, she was quiet and unassuming, but would go on to great things as the Carrion Queen. I will help Karsk where I can.
