

To the Challenger Podine Halfthorn,

The Iron Duke has heard and will respond.

Your challenge will have no limit on how long it takes you to complete and so I shall not trouble you with the details now.

Revel, who rapidly replaces Castellan as the Lord of the Crossroad's favoured aid, arrives in Anvil at around ten in the first evening of the Solstice. He will seek out The Eternal Family as the most recent casters of the Challenge, and you may find him there, or if they should not welcome guests, then at The Bitterbark Teahouse in your own Nation.

Strive Well
