

Cyrus Skybreaker, Archmage of Winter

My apologies to you for the use of the Imperial Regio. This is a temporary use of its power to allow Imperial Mages to enter the Winter Chamber at this Solstice.

I have invited delegates from all nations that I have good relations: Scions of Atun and Atuman: the royal houses of the Dawn: the tribes of Kallavesi and Suag: the heirs of Aldrei the Fair: the scions of Terrapel: the masters of the High Peaks: the Princes of Jarm: the descendants of the Sorcerer-Kings: the tribes of the Dragon: and the sons and daughters of Naguerro. As such I have create a Winter regio that allow travel to this chamber.

From the afternoon on Saturday of the Solstice any mage who has mastered the Lore of Winter will be able to open a portal to the Winter Chamber in the same way that Imperial Mages can open a portal to the Hall of Years.

This will allow the mages of the Empire and the other invited nations to speak to all the Winter Eternals in a neutral location, in addition we will be accepting tribute from the invited nations, in return for our favour.

To allow you to send messages to the Winter Eternals there shall be a message box that will a message to be sent to any of the Winter Eternals, be placed within the box with that message labelled with the name of the eternal It is too written in the Blood from the Winter Realm (at least one pawn's worth of this winter mana)

The nation who gives the largest tribute will gain the favour of that eternal. To I trust that you shall take this opportunity to give the tribute, which will be collected at midnight of the Saturday evening. The tribute will only be accepted in Dragonbone.

The boons that you can submit tribute for are listed below. I will make sure that people from all these nations are aware, but if you could let the conclave know then that I would be grateful. Obviously, it is only the true nations of the Empire
