

CURSE

Curse ID: 19818

Levi's Curse of the Pact

Hubble bubble, toil and strife; a careful hand can end a life.

Role-playing Effect: Your character is CURSED. While this curse is in effect:

- It feels good to tear down, denigrate or hurt those who consider themselves beautiful, clever, heroic or brave, or accomplished.
- You feel a rush of pleasure when you make someone who thinks themselves special question themselves.
- Destroying beautiful or valuable things gives you a similar rush.

Mechanical Effect: In addition, while affected by this CURSE:

- You may not bond to any Talisman-type magic item.
- Twice each day when crafting a poison, you can substitute a drop of your blood for up to two drams of bladeroot.
- This will cause the roleplaying effect caused by this CURSE to intensify for a short time.
