

Thank you again for accepting my invitation of a craft exchange this Spring Equinox.

On Sunday at 13:00 I will be outside the hub to conduct the exchange. I aim to have a couple of tables, and you will be invited to place your craft on the table and take one craft off. I will also have a token of personal thanks for each participant in the exchange.

If you aren't able to take part, that is fine. I wish you pride in your creations nonetheless. You would be most welcome to come along and talk about crafting and Pride either way.

I hope to see you shortly,
