

To Lukash Biessek Von Temeschwar,

It seems that we write to you again to thank you for your work, but this time for proving that you are indeed able to massage the cogs of the Empire to your will. We congratulate your Wisdom. We hope in the near future to expand it and improve all of our fortunes.

We have a slightly more physical enterprise for you this season, one that we wish we had the ability to deal with ourselves but the increased pressure on our family continues daily. There is a cache of ours in Holberg that was not discovered during the militia operations but at the same time we were unable to recover its contents. A couple of rats, lacking in Loyalty, have decided to gather up the audacity to steal it from us. We beseech that you work alongside another esteemed Carta of our city who it appears shares a sympathetic ear for our concerns and visits Anvil each season for the summits. It is up to you how you deal with these scum, but we know that they intend to travel to Anvil first to search for conspirators before hitting the vault from Anvil. It is located in the Misericorde region of Holberg, a cave by the name of Schwarzehohle. There will be a box within it that contains 10 wains of White Granite that we wish returned to us via Winged Messenger at Auntie Alina's Bakery, Vargat, Temeschwar. In return you may take anything else of value that you find. Do not be so presumptuous as to think visiting this address in person will frustrate us. It is merely the first in a number of cutouts as this is not our first production.

We have wintered well and now look to the future where we may see the sun again. There are two final concerns. First, the militiaman Hardfrost is celebrating a marriage in Summer. We would like you to acquire an invite for one of your more trusted lieutenants so that we may present a gift to him. Second, we continue interested in whatever moves you have made or will make against the priests that spearheaded the crusade against us.

Your efficiency impresses us. Fulfil these goals and we would like to look towards a face to face meeting with yourself and other similarly Virtuous parties at the Summer Solstice so we may discuss the future.

The person carrying this letter is permitted to carry a response back to us. Use this opportunity well. We are interested to know what you would discuss to us at a sit-down.

We look forward to seeing what you can achieve.
