

Lüssa of Siegehold Hall

I was informed that you came to speak to me, and invite me to Anwil. That will not happen. The actions of your generals have made this impossible.

There is only one in the Empire who has proved themselves to have any honour
The breaking of the terms of war that were signed when this war was inevitable

I am at the Meeting Point, near your lands of Stark in Summersuaq I thank you for your politeness and if you are able to use your magical gate to get there then I will spare you that time.

For the ancestors
