

Domitila Sanguineo Rezia di Tassato

Domnitila

I do not think we have even actually met, but your reputation precedes you.

I hope you do not mind my presumption in writing to you

I have a concern that those Regorio fucks are trying to put us down again.

Those dirty guttersnipes are trying to claim to be direct descendants of Borell himself.

Borell gave his ring to the new Empress when the league was formed. That ring has been seen in Cainea. I beg you, do not let the Regorio scum get hold of this ring and claim that they are more important.

I know that declaring this ring in the name of Mestra and the Gilded Horn would be much prestige for our beautiful city and of your carta. I am sure with all your skill, talent and resources at your disposal you will be able to find it.

For pride

Gaetan Patrãoheiro di Mestra
