

General Estana i Mestiere i Guerra,

My name is Alejandra i Mastaq i Guerra and I am one of the Corsairs' Jackals. During this season my unit and I fought, following your orders, far across Spiral against the Grendel.

The majority of what the southern barbarians had was to be expected, one wagon had some nice trinkets, real good stuff, I sent a lovely brooch home to my wife.

There was something else that I took though, it was from a mage who had been chanting about "blood for the maelstrom".

General Estana, I am worried about this blade. I am sorry for burdening you with it, but I felt it was best in your hands, I would ask that you commission an investigation into this blade, and what it might mean for the campaign.

Yours in service,

Alejandra i Mastaq i Guerra
