

Net of the Gulls

Autumn Magnitude 2

Performing the Ritual

Performing this ritual takes at least 2 minutes of roleplaying.

While performing this ritual, a contributor must write a message on a piece of paper, which they should read aloud. The paper must have a hole cut in its centre, no less than the size of a five-Throne coin.

The message must take the form of a poem, formed of up to 10 rhyming couplets. Each couplet should be no more than 30 words long. The poem should detail the ways in which a named individual has recently lied, cheated or manipulated others to gain power. That individual should be present throughout the ritual, and may be a contributor.

All contributors and the named individual must conceal their features for the duration of the ritual.

Effects

When the ritual is complete, the specially prepared paper disappears and is received by the Autumn Eternal Mafen; the paper should be given to the referee.

This ritual does not transfer pictures or items.

The Eternal is peripherally aware of who sent the message.

OOO note

This item is a ritual text.

Any character with the Autumn Ritual Lore skill can master this ritual. You must have a free slot or experience point to master a new ritual. After an appropriate period of roleplaying spent studying these pages, it should then be brought to a referee who will add the ritual to those you have mastered. Doing this does not 'use up' the ritual text.

This ritual cannot be learned by other means; it cannot be taught by a character who knows it unless the ritual is added to the body of Imperial Lore by the Conclave.
