

Myrun, Casca Reborn

I trust you are well. I hope you are well, and you still have the item we recovered at the equinox. Keep your possession of it quiet, and I will meet you on Friday night at 10:30 in The Forge.

Bring with you someone you trust completely to be your guide, and bring the item with you, do not forget the staff either

Soon Casca's secret will be rediscovered and we will have the ultimate weapon against the Orcs.

May you walk with Pride in who you were and who you will become.
