The reputation of the Circle of Zulgan Tash is not unknown to me. I enjoyed the audacity and determination of Velisaveta.

Your colleague Juha is correct. I am interested in acquiring Pilgrim Shields.

I imagine you are referring to the work of Kjersti the Traveller. I do not have a copy, but could probably lay hands on one if I wanted to. But is the relationship between a Vale such as yours and a Volodny of my power really to be based around a piece of ancient history? Could we not instead act together, on the here and now?

Consider this thought. I do not intend to visit Anvil this Solstice. But at the Equinox, perhaps we should meet, or I should send an agent to speak with you further
