

Julian Shatterspire

We are planning on travelling to Anvil on the Saturday of the Winter Equinox.

The herald of the Green Mother has given us an arcane projection that is to be given to you and you alone.

Her herald has told us that the Green Mother wishes you to cast this Arcane Projection on a General to help the Empire this season

Under her instructions we have not read the projection so am intrigued to find out what it does.

If you would allow us to know. It is of course, your decision.
We shall try to find you as the sun sets on the Saturday
