

To King Adamant,

It is my decree that my loyal servants be justly rewarded by the construction of a grand fortification on the site of one of the weakling hawk-lord's palisades. Now that this has been cleared construction can begin.

I expect your koboldi servants to draw up plans and begin work as soon as possible - those five who will inhabit the castle have sent forth their desires and the various necessary materials are already on their way. My lord the Moonsilver Prince expects nothing less than grandiose perfection for his dedicated courtiers.

The five heralds who will rule over the castle are in order of seniority;

- Lord Whitefang, Duke of the Dappled Woods
- Locks of the Moonlit Knights
- Lady Platinum
- Druxus the Generous
- Wolfhunter, the Jumping Spider

Should any contradictions arise from their request, resolve it in favour of the more senior of His Lordship's heralds. Assume that the earlier a herald requests something, the higher a priority it is for them.

We look forward to seeing your work.

Yours Faithfully

Steward Meraxis of the White Tower, Herald of Jaheris

Dear Eadric, of House du Froste

I am Architect Stave, and it is my pleasure to offer you a personal invitation to assist my lord Adamant in the construction of a new castle in the summer realm.

I have received word from the Lord of the Crossroads himself that you are attempting a challenge to prove your worth as a prosperous and diligent servant of your realm; as such, I offer you to test your skills and show my Koboldi what you are capable of.

Go to your Hall of Worlds at half past five on the Saturday of the summit - one of the Koboldi will be there to escort you to a chamber where you will be able to prove yourself. You may bring up to 4 others with you to assist or witness as you see fit. We look forward to seeing your work.

Yours in timber and stone,

Architect Stave

To Whom It May Concern

My lord Jaheris has made it known to ALL in the summer realm that this castle on the former land of the WRETCH Hayaak will be rebuilt in the glory of my lord, with ME as it's preeminent resident.

I demand the following things in order for this endeavour to meet my satisfaction. DO NOT FAIL or you WILL feel the wrath of the Unicorn Knights.

To that end;

- I must have the largest tower possible, at the rear of the castle opposite the gatehouse. No other must have a tower as large as mine.
- The gatehouse must be of middling size, so as not to overshadow the tower.
- Both tower and gatehouse must be the most ornately decorated things in the castle
- There must be a great hall set in front of my tower at the end of a wide courtyard that leads to it
- I must have an ice house, so as to proffer cooling drinks to my esteemed guests on a hot day. This is vital.

Remember that I alone am the most beloved of Jaheris of all those being granted these lands, so you would do well to remember that my needs come first regardless of what my castlemates demand.

Yours,

Lord Whitefang, Duke of the Dappled Woods

To the foremost Koboldi,

Find herein my instructions on what is necessary to construct in the new castle in the Forest of Arden. As a new knightly endeavour it is important that defensive measures are built into the castle to defend my lord Jaheris' claim on these lands - as such the following will be required for by myself and my knightly retinue;

1. I require a large tower, to be positioned at the front of the castle near the gatehouse. In addition, my tower should not be in shadow, for I prefer the sun in the mid day.
2. There must be a knightly barracks, also near the gatehouse.
3. The castle must be protected by moat - I am unconcerned as to what type.
4. Each tower must be protected by catapults throwing shot of flame. No other defensive armament is necessary on the castle - the catapults alone will suffice.

One further note - I detest the smell of both oranges and apples, as too many castles are overrun with these sickly fruits. If there is to be some kind of a garden please choose something more original, for my sanity.

I trust that these instructions are simple enough to carry out - I need not remind you or your lord of what will happen if you do not fulfill your end of this bargain.

Yours Faithfully,

Locks of the Moonlit Knights

To the loyal servants of King Adamant

I enclose here my needs for the new castle. I am very busy so do not presume to bother me with petty demands for corrections etc.

I must have a tower that befits my status as the most powerful magician in the castle.

I must have an orchard to grow the fruits necessary for my various works. This must be placed in the sunniest part of the castle.

I must have a pit to constrain a beast of great renown. This should be as far from any buildings inside the walls as possible.

I require a library within which to work.

I require that the walls be protected by ballistas, so as to protect us from harassment by all manner of flying beasts.

One other note; I cannot stand large bodies of water, so do not think to put in anything of that nature in the castle's environs.

I trust this is simple enough for you to understand.

Regard,

Lady Platinum

TO THE KOBOLDI

WHAT HO, I BRING TIDINGS FROM THE UNICORN PRINCE. HE HAS GRANTED ME A PLACE AMONG THIS GREAT CASTLE AS LO, I SHALL INSTRUCT YOU ON HOW TO ACCOMODATE ME!

MY NEEDS ARE STRAIGHTFORWARD;

- A GRAND TOWER FOR MYSELF
- A TAVERN, OF COURSE! THIS SHOULD BE UP FRONT WITHIN THE WALLS TO SLAKE THE THIRST OF THOSE WHO VISIT
- THE TAVERN MUST HAVE SOME DECORATION ALSO, OBVIOUSLY. MAKE THE DECORATIONS *FUN*
- A TOURNEY SQUARE! YES!

I HATE SERPENTS AND ANYTHING OF THAT NATURE, SO DON'T GO AROUND ENGRAVING STUFF LIKE THAT ON THE WALLS, I BEG OF YOU.

HA HA!

DRUXUS THE GENEROUS

To the noble heralds of King Adamant,

As I have been granted my first fief in the Forest of Arden, I am presenting my requests for your humble servants to build on my behalf. I am eager to see my small part in your beautiful work!

I require

- A tower to call my own, with decorations*
- A smithy so I can work on my arms*

Thank you,

Wolfhunter, the Jumping Spider, Herald of Jaheris
