

Morrigan Mortère,

I write to you from the Broken Barrow on behalf of The King Beneath the Hill.

He is most pleased that you chose to accept his recent gift, and requests a small act of service in keeping with your beneficial arrangement.

The Lord of Crows wishes to honour the Empire's new Throne. He has long waited for another Varushkan to bear the crown, and extends his congratulations, respect and well-wishes.

Please deliver the enclosed token to Empress Vesna, a reminder that the Charnel Lord, Boyar of the Broken Barrow offers his services, should they ever be of use to her.

Should you find yourself unable to deliver this gift, please cast it into the Imperial regio. Other hands will ensure it makes its way back to our mutual master.

Yours,

Raissa, Branoc born on behalf of the Boyar of the Broken Barrow

[OoC note: Please come to the monster tent at 5pm on Friday and ask for Erin in plot to pick up the phys rep for the gift mentioned in this letter.]

To the Jolly Jackdaw Cartel,

Last season, myself and my associate Julian visited your cartel at Anvil and accepted some doses of Imperial "liao" to experiment with its usage to develop a new, recreational substance.

I'm delighted to say we've had a great success! We are undertaking the journey to the Casinean Empire once again this season, and have some samples of the new concoction for you to try. We can then discuss further business arrangements.

If all goes to plan, we shall arrive at Anvil at 1pm on the Sunday of the Winter Solstice, and shall make our way to the League camp.

Met hartelijke groeten,

To Fintan Founders' Dance,

Thank you for your note - and likewise apologies that we had no chance to speak fully last summit. We are once again travelling to Anvil this season, and hope to catch up with you on the Saturday afternoon of the summit.

This has been a difficult season, and I'm afraid Leto has now found a buyer for her dose of Esemtum Hamttum within Axos, so an auction this season won't be possible but thank you for your help with this, and for your hospitality. I know there is general anxiety about entering the Empire as a priest from my nation, but Leto was treated only with respect during her visit.

I would like to add that this season we are travelling with an Ilarch of Kaban. They come to present a gift from the citadels to Axos to the incoming Empress at her coronation, but this is their first visit to the Casinean Empire, and I'm sure that if there would be time, they would appreciate meeting you and discussing a little of the trade relationships between our two nations that we have been able to establish.

To Apolloyn of House Castellan,

Thank you for your business and hospitality in Anvil this past year.

Unfortunately, due to circumstances outside our control, we are now winding down our trade within the Casinean Empire.

Please find enclosed the doses of Red Lotus you ordered with us last summit. If you need anything further, we will be selling the last of our stock on the Saturday afternoon of the winter solstice from our usual spot outside the Forge.

Thanks to your Prosperity, we have been able to gather the funds to rebuild much of our Citadel. It's difficult to put into words how much this means for us, and for all of Kaban.
