

Syn Nighthaven

You have met with Heralds. You have been to the Darkest Chamber.

You are awaiting a boon from the Tomb King. I have spoken with the Heralds and I have a new offer for you that replaces any previous offers.

You and members of your coven will be offered the opportunity to learn a ritual from the Testament of Ashaver.

The rituals you are being offered are:

The Basalt Citadel

The Wolves of Winter

Fraying the Thread

All to Dust

The descriptions in the Testament are from a long time ago – there may be small changes to how the rituals work now, or adjustments to the cost of casting them.

You may only choose 1.

AND if you choose it, you MUST cast it at least 4 times in the year that follows from learning it. Otherwise there will be a painful price for all who learnt it.

Speak with your coven. Bring 1 representative with you to the Open Chamber at the Regio of the Unquiet Hounds in Bittershore, Ossium. There you will witness the current Trials of the Pallid Charm and you will speak with Exquy to let the Hungry Wolf know your decision.

The learning will take place at the Spring Equinox, once you have chosen. You will visit with Heralds who will share with you all a viewing of a ritual text. The ritual text itself will not leave the Chamber.

May you know purest suffering
Anya, Agent of the Tomb King
