

Cesare of the Church of the Little Mother,

I hear you have withdrawn from the High Tontine.

I am unaware if you have tricked Oscuro, or Oscuro is trying to trick me or we are all victims of a failure of accurate ledgers – I am interested to find out. I will be sending a Herald to speak with Oscuro on this and other matters on the Friday of the Solstice.

By half past 7 their business should be concluded and the Herald will be free to speak with you – and talk about your intentions and ambitions. Please ask Oscuro where they plan to be and join them around that time if you are interested. They will be expecting the question.

Lanister, Secretary to the Sovereign Lord of the City of Chains
