

The Trials of the Pallid Charm – Next Stage

Congratulations Novartis Aurelius

You are still working towards receiving your boon from The Hungry Wolf.
Your boon is The Tomb King will provide you with an arcane projection of The Shattered Call, and a small boon to make it easier for you to cast it. This ritual brings a defensive force to the regio where it is cast, and the heralds of the Tomb King will help you find the right winter regio for this.

Remember that only one will ultimately receive a boon.

There are two meetings offered to you this Equinox. Both take place in Anvil.

---

The next stage of the trial - the essential meeting

This will reduce the number of participants moving forwards.

The Tomb King wishes you to present him with an offering.

That should be in two parts:

At least two measures of Dragonbone

A tale or accounting of how you acquired that Dragonbone – you should show how you used the experience to learn through suffering yourself or you caused someone else to do so

You will give this to his Herald or agent between 1.30 and 2.30pm on the Sunday of this Solstice In the Dawnish Camp

The Tomb King will choose those whose gifts he finds most interesting

For example

If you have only been to Anvil a small number of times – but provide a large gift of Dragonbone
If you have given up something important to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have cursed someone in such a way that someone understands themselves better to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have acquired the Dragonbone from someone who will suffer and learn from The Tomb King's boon if you win

---

These are only examples

Note: You do not need to write the tale down, our Heralds and agents will make notes, but you can, if you prefer to.

---

The Assistants.

Exquy, Herald of the Empty Chamber, has had me contact some newer visitors to Anvil. There are only a small number of them and we can't speak for them – but they are invited – see the optional meeting below - to meet you on the Friday evening of the Equinox – you may find they can assist you – or you can help them understand the nature of the Hungry Wolf. Some of them have Dragonbone Forests.

---

Your Witness - Your witness is Thomas

You must check that your witness is coping with The Curse of the Bleak Tower. Let them know that there are spiritual anointings that can bring them temporary relief – The Wisdom of the Balanced Blade ritual will tell them which. Using these anointings IS permitted. But remember, the relief is temporary. Will that be worse or better?

---

A Chance to Prepare – the Optional Meeting

You are invited to meet myself and Agnes, Agents of the Tomb King at 8 on the first evening of the equinox at the Imperial Senate.

This is not required it is optional

Likely reasons for attending

If you are not clear what is required for this stage of the trials

If you would like to see if any of our potential assistants will help you

If we have asked you to tell us about your witness

If your witness would like to have their Curse removed, and you are willing to give up your place in the Trials

If you would like to meet your fellow participants in the trials

---

In the pain of self knowledge - Anya

The Trials of the Pallid Charm – Next Stage

Congratulations Clarice Novarion

You are still working towards receiving your boon from The Hungry Wolf.
Your boon is The Hungry Wolf will create an opportunity to allow an army to turn its back on Cruelty to gain another grim power not known to the Empire before now - though this power will have its own consequences for armies that meet it, ones different to those wrought by a Cruel army. Remember you will have to persuade the General of the army to agree.

Remember that only one will ultimately receive a boon.

There are two meetings offered to you this Equinox. Both take place in Anvil.

---

The next stage of the trial - the essential meeting

This will reduce the number of participants moving forwards.

The Tomb King wishes you to present him with an offering.

That should be in two parts:

At least two measures of Dragonbone

A tale or accounting of how you acquired that Dragonbone – you should show how you used the experience to learn through suffering yourself or you caused someone else to do so

You will give this to his Herald or agent between 1.30 and 2.30pm on the Sunday of this Solstice at In the Dawnish Camp

The Tomb King will choose those whose gifts he finds most interesting

For example

If you have only been to Anvil a small number of times – but provide a large gift of Dragonbone
If you have given up something important to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have cursed someone in such a way that someone understands themselves better to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have acquired the Dragonbone from someone who will suffer and learn from The Tomb King's boon if you win

---

These are only examples

Note: You do not need to write the tale down, our Heralds and agents will make notes, but you can, if you prefer to.

---

The Assistants.

Exquy, Herald of the Empty Chamber, has had me contact some newer visitors to Anvil. There are only a small number of them and we can't speak for them – but they are invited – see the optional meeting below - to meet you on the Friday evening of the Equinox – you may find they can assist you – or you can help them understand the nature of the Hungry Wolf. Some of them have Dragonbone Forests.

---

Your Witness - Your witness is A Magister

You must check that your witness is coping with The Curse of the Bleak Tower. Let them know that there are spiritual anointings that can bring them temporary relief – The Wisdom of the Balanced Blade ritual will tell them which. Using these anointings IS permitted. But remember, the relief is temporary. Will that be worse or better?

---

A Chance to Prepare – the Optional Meeting

You are invited to meet myself and Agnes, Agents of the Tomb King at 8 on the first evening of the equinox at the Imperial Senate.

This is not required it is optional

Likely reasons for attending

If you are not clear what is required for this stage of the trials

If you would like to see if any of our potential assistants will help you

If we have asked you to tell us about your witness

If your witness would like to have their Curse removed, and you are willing to give up your place in the Trials

If you would like to meet your fellow participants in the trials

---

In the pain of self knowledge - Anya

The Trials of the Pallid Charm – Next Stage

Congratulations Earl Ruse Myriad

You are still working towards receiving your boon from The Hungry Wolf.
Your boon is You will be gifted a rare item of jewellery that allows you, at certain times, to keep others with you when they are bleeding though you will feel their physical pain yourself and be numbed to the emotional suffering of those around you when you do so.

Remember that only one will ultimately receive a boon.

There are two meetings offered to you this Equinox. Both take place in Anvil.

---

The next stage of the trial - the essential meeting

This will reduce the number of participants moving forwards.

The Tomb King wishes you to present him with an offering.

That should be in two parts:

At least two measures of Dragonbone

A tale or accounting of how you acquired that Dragonbone – you should show how you used the experience to learn through suffering yourself or you caused someone else to do so

You will give this to his Herald or agent between 1.30 and 2.30pm on the Sunday of this Solstice at In the Dawnish Camp

The Tomb King will choose those whose gifts he finds most interesting

For example

If you have only been to Anvil a small number of times – but provide a large gift of Dragonbone
If you have given up something important to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have cursed someone in such a way that someone understands themselves better to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have acquired the Dragonbone from someone who will suffer and learn from The Tomb King's boon if you win

---

These are only examples

Note: You do not need to write the tale down, our Heralds and agents will make notes, but you can, if you prefer to.

---

The Assistants.

Exquy, Herald of the Empty Chamber, has had me contact some newer visitors to Anvil. There are only a small number of them and we can't speak for them – but they are invited – see the optional meeting below - to meet you on the Friday evening of the Equinox – you may find they can assist you – or you can help them understand the nature of the Hungry Wolf. Some of them have Dragonbone Forests.

---

Your Witness - Your witness is Jacques Flayer

You must check that your witness is coping with The Curse of the Bleak Tower. Let them know that there are spiritual anointings that can bring them temporary relief – The Wisdom of the Balanced Blade ritual will tell them which. Using these anointings IS permitted. But remember, the relief is temporary. Will that be worse or better?

---

A Chance to Prepare – the Optional Meeting

You are invited to meet myself and Agnes, Agents of the Tomb King at 8 on the first evening of the equinox at the Imperial Senate.

This is not required it is optional

Likely reasons for attending

If you are not clear what is required for this stage of the trials

If you would like to see if any of our potential assistants will help you

If we have asked you to tell us about your witness

If your witness would like to have their Curse removed, and you are willing to give up your place in the Trials

If you would like to meet your fellow participants in the trials

---

In the pain of self knowledge - Anya

The Trials of the Pallid Charm – Next Stage

Congratulations Sister Sarah

You are still working towards receiving your boon from The Hungry Wolf.
Your boon is The Tomb King will provide you with an arcane projection of The Shattered Call, and a small boon to make it easier for you to cast it. This ritual brings a defensive force to the regio where it is cast, and the heralds of the Tomb King will help you find the right winter regio for this.

Remember that only one will ultimately receive a boon.

There are two meetings offered to you this Equinox. Both take place in Anvil.

---

The next stage of the trial - the essential meeting

This will reduce the number of participants moving forwards.

The Tomb King wishes you to present him with an offering.

That should be in two parts:

At least two measures of Dragonbone

A tale or accounting of how you acquired that Dragonbone – you should show how you used the experience to learn through suffering yourself or you caused someone else to do so

You will give this to his Herald or agent between 1.30 and 2.30pm on the Sunday of this Solstice at Close to the Regio

The Tomb King will choose those whose gifts he finds most interesting

For example

If you have only been to Anvil a small number of times – but provide a large gift of Dragonbone
If you have given up something important to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have cursed someone in such a way that someone understands themselves better to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have acquired the Dragonbone from someone who will suffer and learn from The Tomb King's boon if you win

---

These are only examples

Note: You do not need to write the tale down, our Heralds and agents will make notes, but you can, if you prefer to.

---

The Assistants.

Exquy, Herald of the Empty Chamber, has had me contact some newer visitors to Anvil. There are only a small number of them and we can't speak for them – but they are invited – see the optional meeting below - to meet you on the Friday evening of the Equinox – you may find they can assist you – or you can help them understand the nature of the Hungry Wolf. Some of them have Dragonbone Forests.

---

Your Witness - Your witness is Brother Aemon

You must check that your witness is coping with The Curse of the Bleak Tower. Let them know that there are spiritual anointings that can bring them temporary relief – The Wisdom of the Balanced Blade ritual will tell them which. Using these anointings IS permitted. But remember, the relief is temporary. Will that be worse or better?

---

A Chance to Prepare – the Optional Meeting

You are invited to meet myself and Agnes, Agents of the Tomb King at 8 on the first evening of the equinox at the Imperial Senate.

This is not required it is optional

Likely reasons for attending

If you are not clear what is required for this stage of the trials

If you would like to see if any of our potential assistants will help you

If we have asked you to tell us about your witness

If your witness would like to have their Curse removed, and you are willing to give up your place in the Trials

If you would like to meet your fellow participants in the trials

---

In the pain of self knowledge - Anya

The Trials of the Pallid Charm – Next Stage

Congratulations Raziel

You are still working towards receiving your boon from The Hungry Wolf.
Your boon is The Tomb King will strike at your enemy Cesare of the Golden Horn by cursing the city of Tassato Mestra that he dearly loves.

Remember that only one will ultimately receive a boon.

There are two meetings offered to you this Equinox. Both take place in Anvil.

---

The next stage of the trial - the essential meeting

This will reduce the number of participants moving forwards.

The Tomb King wishes you to present him with an offering.

That should be in two parts:

At least two measures of Dragonbone

A tale or accounting of how you acquired that Dragonbone – you should show how you used the experience to learn through suffering yourself or you caused someone else to do so

You will give this to his Herald or agent between 1.30 and 2.30pm on the Sunday of this Solstice at Close to the Regio

The Tomb King will choose those whose gifts he finds most interesting

For example

If you have only been to Anvil a small number of times – but provide a large gift of Dragonbone
If you have given up something important to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have cursed someone in such a way that someone understands themselves better to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have acquired the Dragonbone from someone who will suffer and learn from The Tomb King's boon if you win

These are only examples

---

Note: You do not need to write the tale down, our Heralds and agents will make notes, but you can, if you prefer to.

---

The Assistants.

Exquy, Herald of the Empty Chamber, has had me contact some newer visitors to Anvil. There are only a small number of them and we can't speak for them – but they are invited – see the optional meeting below - to meet you on the Friday evening of the Equinox – you may find they can assist you – or you can help them understand the nature of the Hungry Wolf. Some of them have Dragonbone Forests.

---

Your Witness - Your witness is Baraos

You must check that your witness is coping with The Curse of the Bleak Tower. Let them know that there are spiritual anointings that can bring them temporary relief – The Wisdom of the Balanced Blade ritual will tell them which. Using these anointings IS permitted. But remember, the relief is temporary. Will that be worse or better?

---

A Chance to Prepare – the Optional Meeting

You are invited to meet myself and Agnes, Agents of the Tomb King at 8 on the first evening of the equinox at the Imperial Senate.

This is not required it is optional

Likely reasons for attending

If you are not clear what is required for this stage of the trials

If you would like to see if any of our potential assistants will help you

If we have asked you to tell us about your witness

If your witness would like to have their Curse removed, and you are willing to give up your place in the Trials

If you would like to meet your fellow participants in the trials

---

In the pain of self knowledge - Anya

The Trials of the Pallid Charm – Next Stage

Congratulations Monzcarro von Holberg

You are still working towards receiving your boon from The Hungry Wolf.
Your boon is You will receive an invitation to The Darkest Chamber to discuss curses with The Tomb King.

Remember that only one will ultimately receive a boon.

There are two meetings offered to you this Equinox. Both take place in Anvil.

---

The next stage of the trial - the essential meeting

This will reduce the number of participants moving forwards.

The Tomb King wishes you to present him with an offering.

That should be in two parts:

At least two measures of Dragonbone

A tale or accounting of how you acquired that Dragonbone – you should show how you used the experience to learn through suffering yourself or you caused someone else to do so

You will give this to his Herald or agent between 1.30 and 2.30pm on the Sunday of this Solstice at Close to the Regio

The Tomb King will choose those whose gifts he finds most interesting

For example

If you have only been to Anvil a small number of times – but provide a large gift of Dragonbone
If you have given up something important to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have cursed someone in such a way that someone understands themselves better to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have acquired the Dragonbone from someone who will suffer and learn from The Tomb King's boon if you win

These are only examples

---

Note: You do not need to write the tale down, our Heralds and agents will make notes, but you can, if you prefer to.

---

The Assistants.

Exquy, Herald of the Empty Chamber, has had me contact some newer visitors to Anvil. There are only a small number of them and we can't speak for them – but they are invited – see the optional meeting below - to meet you on the Friday evening of the Equinox – you may find they can assist you – or you can help them understand the nature of the Hungry Wolf. Some of them have Dragonbone Forests.

---

Your Witness

Your witness is Silvio di Tassato

You must check that your witness is coping with The Curse of the Bleak Tower. Let them know that there are spiritual anointings that can bring them temporary relief – The Wisdom of the Balanced Blade ritual will tell them which. Using these anointings IS permitted. But remember, the relief is temporary. Will that be worse or better?

---

A Chance to Prepare – the Optional Meeting

You are invited to meet myself and Agnes, Agents of the Tomb King at 8 on the first evening of the equinox at the Imperial Senate.

This is not required it is optional

Likely reasons for attending

If you are not clear what is required for this stage of the trials

If you would like to see if any of our potential assistants will help you

If we have asked you to tell us about your witness

If your witness would like to have their Curse removed, and you are willing to give up your place in the Trials

If you would like to meet your fellow participants in the trials

---

In the pain of self knowledge - Anya

The Trials of the Pallid Charm – Next Stage

Congratulations Blayk Stone

You are still working towards receiving your boon from The Hungry Wolf. Your boon is From a Winter Regio known to him in the Mournwold, The Tomb King will create A Withered Garden, a place of both growing and trade. There Marchers and Mournwold Orcs will share knowledge, and the herbs generated. This boon will be dependent on your senate allowing equal shares of herbs between the Marchers and the Mournwold Orcs.

Remember that only one will ultimately receive a boon.

There are two meetings offered to you this Equinox. Both take place in Anvil.

---

The next stage of the trial - the essential meeting

This will reduce the number of participants moving forwards.

The Tomb King wishes you to present him with an offering.

That should be in two parts:

At least two measures of Dragonbone

A tale or accounting of how you acquired that Dragonbone – you should show how you used the experience to learn through suffering yourself or you caused someone else to do so

You will give this to his Herald or agent between 1.30 and 2.30pm on the Sunday of this Solstice at In the Navarr Woods

The Tomb King will choose those whose gifts he finds most interesting

For example

If you have only been to Anvil a small number of times – but provide a large gift of Dragonbone
If you have given up something important to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have cursed someone in such a way that someone understands themselves better to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have acquired the Dragonbone from someone who will suffer and learn from The Tomb King's boon if you win

---

These are only examples

Note: You do not need to write the tale down, our Heralds and agents will make notes, but you can, if you prefer to.

---

The Assistants.

Exquy, Herald of the Empty Chamber, has had me contact some newer visitors to Anvil. There are only a small number of them and we can't speak for them – but they are invited – see the optional meeting below - to meet you on the Friday evening of the Equinox – you may find they can assist you – or you can help them understand the nature of the Hungry Wolf. Some of them have Dragonbone Forests.

---

Your Witness - Your witness is Synne

You must check that your witness is coping with The Curse of the Bleak Tower. Let them know that there are spiritual anointings that can bring them temporary relief – The Wisdom of the Balanced Blade ritual will tell them which. Using these anointings IS permitted. But remember, the relief is temporary. Will that be worse or better?

---

A Chance to Prepare – the Optional Meeting

You are invited to meet myself and Agnes, Agents of the Tomb King at 8 on the first evening of the equinox at the Imperial Senate.

This is not required it is optional

Likely reasons for attending

If you are not clear what is required for this stage of the trials

If you would like to see if any of our potential assistants will help you

If we have asked you to tell us about your witness

If your witness would like to have their Curse removed, and you are willing to give up your place in the Trials

If you would like to meet your fellow participants in the trials

---

In the pain of self knowledge - Anya

The Trials of the Pallid Charm – Next Stage

Congratulations Morven Whitemane

You are still working towards receiving your boon from The Hungry Wolf.
Your boon is The Hungry Wolf will arrange a way to attach a withering dessication to one of your Casinean armies, weakening the vallorn as if the Tomb King had sent a thousand strength of warriors against the trees.

Remember that only one will ultimately receive a boon.

There are two meetings offered to you this Equinox. Both take place in Anvil.

---

The next stage of the trial - the essential meeting

This will reduce the number of participants moving forwards.

The Tomb King wishes you to present him with an offering.

That should be in two parts:

At least two measures of Dragonbone

A tale or accounting of how you acquired that Dragonbone – you should show how you used the experience to learn through suffering yourself or you caused someone else to do so

You will give this to his Herald or agent between 1.30 and 2.30pm on the Sunday of this Solstice at In the Navarr Woods

The Tomb King will choose those whose gifts he finds most interesting

For example

If you have only been to Anvil a small number of times – but provide a large gift of Dragonbone
If you have given up something important to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have cursed someone in such a way that someone understands themselves better to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have acquired the Dragonbone from someone who will suffer and learn from The Tomb King's boon if you win

---

These are only examples

Note: You do not need to write the tale down, our Heralds and agents will make notes, but you can, if you prefer to.

---

The Assistants.

Exquy, Herald of the Empty Chamber, has had me contact some newer visitors to Anvil. There are only a small number of them and we can't speak for them – but they are invited – see the optional meeting below - to meet you on the Friday evening of the Equinox – you may find they can assist you – or you can help them understand the nature of the Hungry Wolf. Some of them have Dragonbone Forests.

---

Your Witness - Your witness is Kerrewyn Edgestalker

You must check that your witness is coping with The Curse of the Bleak Tower. Let them know that there are spiritual anointings that can bring them temporary relief – The Wisdom of the Balanced Blade ritual will tell them which. Using these anointings IS permitted. But remember, the relief is temporary. Will that be worse or better?

---

A Chance to Prepare – the Optional Meeting

You are invited to meet myself and Agnes, Agents of the Tomb King at 8 on the first evening of the equinox at the Imperial Senate.

This is not required it is optional

Likely reasons for attending

If you are not clear what is required for this stage of the trials

If you would like to see if any of our potential assistants will help you

If we have asked you to tell us about your witness

If your witness would like to have their Curse removed, and you are willing to give up your place in the Trials

If you would like to meet your fellow participants in the trials

---

In the pain of self knowledge - Anya

The Trials of the Pallid Charm – Next Stage

Congratulations Terah

You are still working towards receiving your boon from The Hungry Wolf.
Your boon is The Hungry Wolf will arrange a way to attach a withering dessication to one of your Casinean armies, weakening the vallorn as if the Tomb King had sent a thousand strength of warriors against the trees.

Remember that only one will ultimately receive a boon.

There are two meetings offered to you this Equinox. Both take place in Anvil.

---

The next stage of the trial - the essential meeting

This will reduce the number of participants moving forwards.

The Tomb King wishes you to present him with an offering.

That should be in two parts:

At least two measures of Dragonbone

A tale or accounting of how you acquired that Dragonbone – you should show how you used the experience to learn through suffering yourself or you caused someone else to do so

You will give this to his Herald or agent between 1.30 and 2.30pm on the Sunday of this Solstice at In the Navarr Woods

The Tomb King will choose those whose gifts he finds most interesting

For example

If you have only been to Anvil a small number of times – but provide a large gift of Dragonbone
If you have given up something important to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have cursed someone in such a way that someone understands themselves better to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have acquired the Dragonbone from someone who will suffer and learn from The Tomb King's boon if you win

---

These are only examples. Note: You do not need to write the tale down, our Heralds and agents will make notes, but you can, if you prefer to.

---

The Assistants.

Exquy, Herald of the Empty Chamber, has had me contact some newer visitors to Anvil. There are only a small number of them and we can't speak for them – but they are invited – see the optional meeting below - to meet you on the Friday evening of the Equinox – you may find they can assist you – or you can help them understand the nature of the Hungry Wolf. Some of them have Dragonbone Forests.

---

Your Witness

We think your witness was Selwyn, but our records are shaky, please confirm at the meeting

You must check that your witness is coping with The Curse of the Bleak Tower. Let them know that there are spiritual anointings that can bring them temporary relief – The Wisdom of the Balanced Blade ritual will tell them which. Using these anointings IS permitted. But remember, the relief is temporary. Will that be worse or better?

---

A Chance to Prepare – the Optional Meeting

You are invited to meet myself and Agnes, Agents of the Tomb King at 8 on the first evening of the equinox at the Imperial Senate.

This is not required it is optional

Likely reasons for attending

If you are not clear what is required for this stage of the trials

If you would like to see if any of our potential assistants will help you

If we have asked you to tell us about your witness

If your witness would like to have their Curse removed, and you are willing to give up your place in the Trials

If you would like to meet your fellow participants in the trials

---

In the pain of self knowledge - Anya

The Trials of the Pallid Charm – Next Stage

Congratulations Drefa Brackensong

You are still working towards receiving your boon from The Hungry Wolf.
Your boon is The Hungry Wolf will reveal to you a Winter regio outside the Empire that is within distance of an Imperial border to be reached by Sentinel Gate. As you progress in the trials we will discuss where such a thing can be found and how you can use it to deliver a curse.

Remember that only one will ultimately receive a boon.

There are two meetings offered to you this Equinox. Both take place in Anvil.

---

The next stage of the trial - the essential meeting

This will reduce the number of participants moving forwards.

The Tomb King wishes you to present him with an offering.

That should be in two parts:

At least two measures of Dragonbone

A tale or accounting of how you acquired that Dragonbone – you should show how you used the experience to learn through suffering yourself or you caused someone else to do so

You will give this to his Herald or agent between 1.30 and 2.30pm on the Sunday of this Solstice at In the Navarr Woods

The Tomb King will choose those whose gifts he finds most interesting

For example

If you have only been to Anvil a small number of times – but provide a large gift of Dragonbone
If you have given up something important to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have cursed someone in such a way that someone understands themselves better to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have acquired the Dragonbone from someone who will suffer and learn from The Tomb King's boon if you win

---

These are only examples

Note: You do not need to write the tale down, our Heralds and agents will make notes, but you can, if you prefer to.

---

The Assistants.

Exquy, Herald of the Empty Chamber, has had me contact some newer visitors to Anvil. There are only a small number of them and we can't speak for them – but they are invited – see the optional meeting below - to meet you on the Friday evening of the Equinox – you may find they can assist you – or you can help them understand the nature of the Hungry Wolf. Some of them have Dragonbone Forests.

---

Your Witness - Your witness is Gawain Splitroot

You must check that your witness is coping with The Curse of the Bleak Tower. Let them know that there are spiritual anointings that can bring them temporary relief – The Wisdom of the Balanced Blade ritual will tell them which. Using these anointings IS permitted. But remember, the relief is temporary. Will that be worse or better?

---

A Chance to Prepare – the Optional Meeting

You are invited to meet myself and Agnes, Agents of the Tomb King at 8 on the first evening of the equinox at the Imperial Senate.

This is not required it is optional

Likely reasons for attending

If you are not clear what is required for this stage of the trials

If you would like to see if any of our potential assistants will help you

If we have asked you to tell us about your witness

If your witness would like to have their Curse removed, and you are willing to give up your place in the Trials

If you would like to meet your fellow participants in the trials

---

In the pain of self knowledge - Anya

The Trials of the Pallid Charm – Next Stage

Congratulations Aurum Nightingale

You are still working towards receiving your boon from The Hungry Wolf.
Your boon is You will receive a selection of jewellery. Each piece will protect the wearer so that when others experience fear, terror or other malignant emotions they may resist such things, responding instead with utter blank emptiness and determination.

Remember that only one will ultimately receive a boon.

There are two meetings offered to you this Equinox. Both take place in Anvil.

---

The next stage of the trial - the essential meeting

This will reduce the number of participants moving forwards.

The Tomb King wishes you to present him with an offering.

That should be in two parts:

At least two measures of Dragonbone

A tale or accounting of how you acquired that Dragonbone – you should show how you used the experience to learn through suffering yourself or you caused someone else to do so

You will give this to his Herald or agent between 1.30 and 2.30pm on the Sunday of this Solstice at Close to the Regio

The Tomb King will choose those whose gifts he finds most interesting

For example

If you have only been to Anvil a small number of times – but provide a large gift of Dragonbone
If you have given up something important to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have cursed someone in such a way that someone understands themselves better to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have acquired the Dragonbone from someone who will suffer and learn from The Tomb King's boon if you win

---

These are only examples

Note: You do not need to write the tale down, our Heralds and agents will make notes, but you can, if you prefer to.

---

The Assistants.

Exquy, Herald of the Empty Chamber, has had me contact some newer visitors to Anvil. There are only a small number of them and we can't speak for them – but they are invited – see the optional meeting below - to meet you on the Friday evening of the Equinox – you may find they can assist you – or you can help them understand the nature of the Hungry Wolf. Some of them have Dragonbone Forests.

---

Your Witness - Your witness is Lenarius Ankarien

You must check that your witness is coping with The Curse of the Bleak Tower. Let them know that there are spiritual anointings that can bring them temporary relief – The Wisdom of the Balanced Blade ritual will tell them which. Using these anointings IS permitted. But remember, the relief is temporary. Will that be worse or better?

---

A Chance to Prepare – the Optional Meeting

You are invited to meet myself and Agnes, Agents of the Tomb King at 8 on the first evening of the equinox at the Imperial Senate.

This is not required it is optional

Likely reasons for attending

If you are not clear what is required for this stage of the trials

If you would like to see if any of our potential assistants will help you

If we have asked you to tell us about your witness

If your witness would like to have their Curse removed, and you are willing to give up your place in the Trials

If you would like to meet your fellow participants in the trials

---

In the pain of self knowledge - Anya

The Trials of the Pallid Charm – Next Stage

Congratulations Kazimir Kirovitch Aristous

You are still working towards receiving your boon from The Hungry Wolf.
Your boon is The Tomb King will offer a meeting. He will reveal one buried truth about Varushkan history and offer one conversation about what safety might look like for Varushka.

Remember that only one will ultimately receive a boon.

There are two meetings offered to you this Equinox. Both take place in Anvil.

---

The next stage of the trial - the essential meeting

This will reduce the number of participants moving forwards.

The Tomb King wishes you to present him with an offering.

That should be in two parts:

At least two measures of Dragonbone

A tale or accounting of how you acquired that Dragonbone – you should show how you used the experience to learn through suffering yourself or you caused someone else to do so

You will give this to his Herald or agent between 1.30 and 2.30pm on the Sunday of this Solstice at In the open area in Wintermark

The Tomb King will choose those whose gifts he finds most interesting

For example

If you have only been to Anvil a small number of times – but provide a large gift of Dragonbone
If you have given up something important to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have cursed someone in such a way that someone understands themselves better to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have acquired the Dragonbone from someone who will suffer and learn from The Tomb King's boon if you win

These are only examples

---

Note: You do not need to write the tale down, our Heralds and agents will make notes, but you can, if you prefer to.

---

The Assistants.

Exquy, Herald of the Empty Chamber, has had me contact some newer visitors to Anvil. There are only a small number of them and we can't speak for them – but they are invited – see the optional meeting below - to meet you on the Friday evening of the Equinox – you may find they can assist you – or you can help them understand the nature of the Hungry Wolf. Some of them have Dragonbone Forests.

---

Your Witness

We lost our records of exactly which Nikolai was your witness, please let us know at the meeting

You must check that your witness is coping with The Curse of the Bleak Tower. Let them know that there are spiritual anointings that can bring them temporary relief – The Wisdom of the Balanced Blade ritual will tell them which. Using these anointings IS permitted. But remember, the relief is temporary. Will that be worse or better?

---

A Chance to Prepare – the Optional Meeting

You are invited to meet myself and Agnes, Agents of the Tomb King at 8 on the first evening of the equinox at the Imperial Senate.

This is not required it is optional

Likely reasons for attending

If you are not clear what is required for this stage of the trials

If you would like to see if any of our potential assistants will help you

If we have asked you to tell us about your witness

If your witness would like to have their Curse removed, and you are willing to give up your place in the Trials

If you would like to meet your fellow participants in the trials

---

In the pain of self knowledge - Anya

The Trials of the Pallid Charm – Next Stage

Congratulations Lutobor Branislavovich Glinka

You are still working towards receiving your boon from The Hungry Wolf.
Your boon is The Tomb King will open a chamber so you may visit the winter wasteland of the endless hunt under the guidance of his heralds

Remember that only one will ultimately receive a boon.

There are two meetings offered to you this Equinox. Both take place in Anvil.

---

The next stage of the trial - the essential meeting

This will reduce the number of participants moving forwards.

The Tomb King wishes you to present him with an offering.

That should be in two parts:

At least two measures of Dragonbone

A tale or accounting of how you acquired that Dragonbone – you should show how you used the experience to learn through suffering yourself or you caused someone else to do so

You will give this to his Herald or agent between 1.30 and 2.30pm on the Sunday of this Solstice at In the Navarr Woods

The Tomb King will choose those whose gifts he finds most interesting

For example

If you have only been to Anvil a small number of times – but provide a large gift of Dragonbone
If you have given up something important to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have cursed someone in such a way that someone understands themselves better to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have acquired the Dragonbone from someone who will suffer and learn from The Tomb King's boon if you win

These are only examples

---

Note: You do not need to write the tale down, our Heralds and agents will make notes, but you can, if you prefer to.

---

The Assistants.

Exquy, Herald of the Empty Chamber, has had me contact some newer visitors to Anvil. There are only a small number of them and we can't speak for them – but they are invited – see the optional meeting below - to meet you on the Friday evening of the Equinox – you may find they can assist you – or you can help them understand the nature of the Hungry Wolf. Some of them have Dragonbone Forests.

---

Your Witness

Your witness is Sigismund of Ossium

You must check that your witness is coping with The Curse of the Bleak Tower. Let them know that there are spiritual anointings that can bring them temporary relief – The Wisdom of the Balanced Blade ritual will tell them which. Using these anointings IS permitted. But remember, the relief is temporary. Will that be worse or better?

---

A Chance to Prepare – the Optional Meeting

You are invited to meet myself and Agnes, Agents of the Tomb King at 8 on the first evening of the equinox at the Imperial Senate.

This is not required it is optional

Likely reasons for attending

If you are not clear what is required for this stage of the trials

If you would like to see if any of our potential assistants will help you

If we have asked you to tell us about your witness

If your witness would like to have their Curse removed, and you are willing to give up your place in the Trials

If you would like to meet your fellow participants in the trials

---

In the pain of self knowledge - Anya

The Trials of the Pallid Charm – Next Stage

Congratulations Leofric Baerson

You are still working towards receiving your boon from The Hungry Wolf. Your boon is The Hungry Wolf will offer your coven the chance to learn THE BLACK STONE - a ritual like the Rite of Agony, but one that offers an even greater boost in Winter Lore to the chosen targets for the cost of an envenomed wound and waves of gnawing emptiness. There are no other Casineans known to know this rite in this time.

Remember that only one will ultimately receive a boon.

There are two meetings offered to you this Equinox. Both take place in Anvil.

---

The next stage of the trial - the essential meeting

This will reduce the number of participants moving forwards.

The Tomb King wishes you to present him with an offering.

That should be in two parts:

At least two measures of Dragonbone

A tale or accounting of how you acquired that Dragonbone – you should show how you used the experience to learn through suffering yourself or you caused someone else to do so

You will give this to his Herald or agent between 1.30 and 2.30pm on the Sunday of this Solstice at In the open area in Wintermark

The Tomb King will choose those whose gifts he finds most interesting

For example

If you have only been to Anvil a small number of times – but provide a large gift of Dragonbone
If you have given up something important to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have cursed someone in such a way that someone understands themselves better to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have acquired the Dragonbone from someone who will suffer and learn from The Tomb King's boon if you win

---

These are only examples. Note: You do not need to write the tale down, our Heralds and agents will make notes, but you can, if you prefer to.

---

The Assistants.

Exquy, Herald of the Empty Chamber, has had me contact some newer visitors to Anvil. There are only a small number of them and we can't speak for them – but they are invited – see the optional meeting below - to meet you on the Friday evening of the Equinox – you may find they can assist you – or you can help them understand the nature of the Hungry Wolf. Some of them have Dragonbone Forests.

---

Your Witness

We believe it was Matilda, but our records are not certain, please let us know at the meeting

You must check that your witness is coping with The Curse of the Bleak Tower. Let them know that there are spiritual anointings that can bring them temporary relief – The Wisdom of the Balanced Blade ritual will tell them which. Using these anointings IS permitted. But remember, the relief is temporary. Will that be worse or better?

---

A Chance to Prepare – the Optional Meeting

You are invited to meet myself and Agnes, Agents of the Tomb King at 8 on the first evening of the equinox at the Imperial Senate.

This is not required it is optional

Likely reasons for attending

If you are not clear what is required for this stage of the trials

If you would like to see if any of our potential assistants will help you

If we have asked you to tell us about your witness

If your witness would like to have their Curse removed, and you are willing to give up your place in the Trials

If you would like to meet your fellow participants in the trials

---

In the pain of self knowledge - Anya

The Trials of the Pallid Charm – Next Stage

Congratulations Desmond Argonning

You are still working towards receiving your boon from The Hungry Wolf.
Your boon is The Tomb King will invite you and yours to a chamber of the winter hounds to learn what it is to fight in desolation.

Remember that only one will ultimately receive a boon.

There are two meetings offered to you this Equinox. Both take place in Anvil.

---

The next stage of the trial - the essential meeting

This will reduce the number of participants moving forwards.

The Tomb King wishes you to present him with an offering.

That should be in two parts:

At least two measures of Dragonbone

A tale or accounting of how you acquired that Dragonbone – you should show how you used the experience to learn through suffering yourself or you caused someone else to do so

You will give this to his Herald or agent between 1.30 and 2.30pm on the Sunday of this Solstice at In the open area in Wintermark

The Tomb King will choose those whose gifts he finds most interesting

For example

If you have only been to Anvil a small number of times – but provide a large gift of Dragonbone
If you have given up something important to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have cursed someone in such a way that someone understands themselves better to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have acquired the Dragonbone from someone who will suffer and learn from The Tomb King's boon if you win

These are only examples

---

Note: You do not need to write the tale down, our Heralds and agents will make notes, but you can, if you prefer to.

---

The Assistants.

Exquy, Herald of the Empty Chamber, has had me contact some newer visitors to Anvil. There are only a small number of them and we can't speak for them – but they are invited – see the optional meeting below - to meet you on the Friday evening of the Equinox – you may find they can assist you – or you can help them understand the nature of the Hungry Wolf. Some of them have Dragonbone Forests.

---

Your Witness

Your witness is Odd Twice Born

You must check that your witness is coping with The Curse of the Bleak Tower. Let them know that there are spiritual anointings that can bring them temporary relief – The Wisdom of the Balanced Blade ritual will tell them which. Using these anointings IS permitted. But remember, the relief is temporary. Will that be worse or better?

---

A Chance to Prepare – the Optional Meeting

You are invited to meet myself and Agnes, Agents of the Tomb King at 8 on the first evening of the equinox at the Imperial Senate.

This is not required it is optional

Likely reasons for attending

If you are not clear what is required for this stage of the trials

If you would like to see if any of our potential assistants will help you

If we have asked you to tell us about your witness

If your witness would like to have their Curse removed, and you are willing to give up your place in the Trials

If you would like to meet your fellow participants in the trials

---

In the pain of self knowledge - Anya

The Trials of the Pallid Charm – Next Stage

Congratulations Isolde of Hearthfire

You are still working towards receiving your boon from The Hungry Wolf.
Your boon is The boon you will be offered is conditional. Provided your Imperial Senate pass a motion allowing it, The Tomb King will take a winter regio among the old ruins on the shores of Atkanartok in Suaq Font and at his own cost create a safe harbour for refugees from the Jotun. There will be a price - all children of the refugees will be Draughir.

Remember that only one will ultimately receive a boon.

There are two meetings offered to you this Equinox. Both take place in Anvil.

---

The next stage of the trial - the essential meeting

This will reduce the number of participants moving forwards.

The Tomb King wishes you to present him with an offering.

That should be in two parts:

At least two measures of Dragonbone

A tale or accounting of how you acquired that Dragonbone – you should show how you used the experience to learn through suffering yourself or you caused someone else to do so

You will give this to his Herald or agent between 1.30 and 2.30pm on the Sunday of this Solstice at In the open area in Wintermark

The Tomb King will choose those whose gifts he finds most interesting

For example

If you have only been to Anvil a small number of times – but provide a large gift of Dragonbone
If you have given up something important to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have cursed someone in such a way that someone understands themselves better to acquire the Dragonbone
If you have acquired the Dragonbone from someone who will suffer and learn from The Tomb King's boon if you win

---

These are only examples

Note: You do not need to write the tale down, our Heralds and agents will make notes, but you can, if you prefer to.

---

The Assistants.

Exquy, Herald of the Empty Chamber, has had me contact some newer visitors to Anvil. There are only a small number of them and we can't speak for them – but they are invited – see the optional meeting below - to meet you on the Friday evening of the Equinox – you may find they can assist you – or you can help them understand the nature of the Hungry Wolf. Some of them have Dragonbone Forests.

---

Your Witness - Your witness is Tamar of Enlightenment

You must check that your witness is coping with The Curse of the Bleak Tower. Let them know that there are spiritual anointings that can bring them temporary relief – The Wisdom of the Balanced Blade ritual will tell them which. Using these anointings IS permitted. But remember, the relief is temporary. Will that be worse or better?

---

A Chance to Prepare – the Optional Meeting

You are invited to meet myself and Agnes, Agents of the Tomb King at 8 on the first evening of the equinox at the Imperial Senate.

This is not required it is optional

Likely reasons for attending

If you are not clear what is required for this stage of the trials

If you would like to see if any of our potential assistants will help you

If we have asked you to tell us about your witness

If your witness would like to have their Curse removed, and you are willing to give up your place in the Trials

If you would like to meet your fellow participants in the trials

---

In the pain of self knowledge - Anya