

---

This document contains a summary of rumours, information and stories reported by soldiers of the Wolves of War during their time in Spiral this season. They are presented as OOC statements. If you wish to use any of them in play, you are encouraged to add context for how the story reached you.

These statements may or may not be true, or may have been embellished in the telling, particularly given the paranoia induced by the Black Plateau.

- Over the last year, several important people have disappeared without trace in Spiral
- Some former slaves have made deals with eternalists during their enslavement. Some say that Agramant has been particularly active amongst the mine slaves.
- A ship docked in Apulian during the Spring Equinox burned down to the waterline shortly after leaving port.
- Urizeni Sentinels from some of the older Spires have been collaborating with Grendel loyalists to try and disrupt League integration.
- A guerrilla force of Grendel loyalists has been killing prominent Spiral Orcs to weaken Kaliact's position
- A visiting dignitary from another Salt Lord's court fell to their death four days after the Equinox.
- Those few slaves who were still held in Spiral, upon being freed by Kaliact's decree, have in many cases murdered their former owners.
- Many orcs who have chosen to stay in Spiral and join The League have, nevertheless, been hiding their valuables as the army approaches, fearing looting.
- Two unarmed slaves were able to take out a large group of Wave Riders and kill the Overseer of The Legacy. No witness has been found to explain this feat.
- Several shrines to false gods have been torn down as the army approaches. No violence appears to have been committed and the locals do not seem to complain about this desecration.
- At night, strange noises have been heard wherever the army is camped. Some say it is ghosts, others that a force of Grendel loyalists is following the army. Occasionally, soldiers go missing in the night. What has happened to them is unclear, but none have been seen since.

---

This is an OOC document you should not take it into play. Feel free to make any notes about what your character remembers from the rumours instead.