

*Andreas' Gremapi
Archmage of Summer*

Congratulations on your promotion to the position of Archmage. I trust you are as good at the role as the Wizard you replaced.

I have decided to attend the Empire at midday the Sunday of the Equinox and have granted invitations to several people. Anyone without an Invite from me will need a Child who has not passed their citizenship test to speak to me and convince me why they are worth speaking to. This I hope will mean that anyone who wishes to speak to me, will get the opportunity.

As Archmage, you are of course, invited to speak to me personally, and bring this letter as an invite. I also trust you will announce my intentions to the Conclave so any who wish to speak to me may make arrangements.

I remain

Meraud - The Golden Magician