

Greetings,
we represent the Prince with a thousand foes, Irra Harah

The Children of Courage require your assistance, in the lands of the Iron Confederacy. Please gather your kin and travel to Kalino, where a wedding is taking place. Find there the herald known as Fiagh, they will be able to tell you more. Please help us, the Suranni are slavers, and we must help those held in bondage.

Please hold this matter close, especially amongst the children of Suran.

Please help the Children of Courage, Guardians of the Young
