

We ~~MUST~~ talk.

I know where she is, but my information costs.

Not in coin, but in favour.

I shall come to the Navarri woodland threshold at 9 hours beyond the Sun's zenith on the first night of your gathering.

Come alone, as I will be the same.

You have my word that you are in no danger and no harm shall come to you. I do not seek violence - merely the bargaining of information in the name of love.

You will know it is me by the heart-mark on my cheek.

Do not hesitate. She is sought after.

You are not the only one.
