10, Saturday evening:

CURSE: THE BEAST WITHIN THE WORLD 38032 	You feel a deep-seated urge to acknowledge and encourage villainy in all those who you meet: to tear down their subtleties, reveal their misdeeds and indiscretions to all and sundry such that all will know of their foulness. This effect will expire before time in on Sunday.

10, Saturday evening:

CURSE: THE BEAST UPON THE STAGE 38031 	You feel a deep-seated urge to portray evil before all comers, to engage in wickedness without thought for consequence or subtlety, to be a plague unto those you meet and otherwise play the exaggerated villain. This effect will expire before time in on Sunday.

One of each, Saturday night:

CURSE: Lanval's Guilt ID: 38039 	When you see people wielding undeserved authority, or you are issued a command you disagree with, you see sudden visions of yourself tearing the person apart and consuming their flesh.

One of each, Saturday night:

CURSE: Hunted in Dreams ID: 38043 	You feel a cold presence in your mind, urging you to kill people and eat the bodies. You can resist it, but it takes effort: sometimes chilling threats and/or attempted murder might slip out. You feel certain that wounds you sustained in the dream are real, despite not being visible on your waking body. This has no mechanical effect but is unlikely to improve your mood. Something always seems quite wrong with your being.

One of each, Sat 5pm:

Archipelago, Examination 	The patient's physiology is very, very different to a human's. Their stomach is overloaded with objects which are not being digested. The objects must come out of the stomach before any further issue can be diagnosed.
Archipelago, Initial Treatment 	The objects the patient has swallowed have left lacerations and open wounds under their skin. These must be washed and sealed with a paste of 4 crystal mana, 2 true vervain and 3 marrowart - the body appears to reject traditional medicines or dressings.
Archipelago, Final Diagnosis 	The patient is still clearly unwell. Something seems to still be lodged deep inside their stomach. Unfortunately, whatever the object is, it is bigger than their throat or mouth. Bigger even, it seems, than the stomach they have in this form. To extract it, you will need the patient to grow bigger so that the item could be dislodged and removed. It is unclear how this could be achieved.

KRAMPUS CURSE 38060  PROFOUND DECISIONS	Roleplaying Effect: You suffer from poor fortune for one year. Whatever you do, you find yourself plagued by unforeseen problems and unlucky coincidences. You feel like you are being tested by fate.

Location Aura - STARE DOWN THE BEAST - Strength: 4

Within this area you are keenly aware of the villainy that lurks within the heart of each person: recognising, acknowledging and confronting the worst qualities within yourself and others feels like the most natural thing in the world, while subtlety and social graces feel illusory and unnatural. Should you be able to spend fifteen minutes within this aura, the experience is invigorating: once per day, you may use this to regain all of your spent hero points.

Location Aura – Magnitude 12

Anyone who enters this area feels sorrowful and lethargic.
