

Cardinal Ophelia Sanguineo Rezia Di Tassato,

I will be brief: over this past season I believe that I have uncovered a blasphemous cult within my city.

I would see their influence removed as soon as possible, but I have grave fears over the potential political ramifications of dealing with them in a loud and public manner.

There is much more to be said, but I would prefer only to do so in person. I intend to visit the Anvil League camp at half-past eight on the Friday of the coming summit, and would be most grateful to speak with you, or someone who has your complete trust.

I will be sat in the Temeschbar, alone.

My thanks,

Bishop Patrici di Sarvos
