

To our great Spirit, Knight of Roses,

We implore you to call the heroes of Dawn to aide us in our time of need. The dead stalk the forests and fields of Weirmoor, there have been sightings at Green Farm, the Rose Fields, in Gaston's Pasture and in the pleasant meadow of Lady Aubrielle's Acre. The populace fears for their lives, nobody goes out at night, and they are fearful during the day! I understand Spiral Castle sent a hero out to learn more from the scattered villages, but they have failed to return and we fear the worse...

I hope that the host of Dawn has the Courage to come to our aid and drive the undead from our door!

Squire Wilhem, Heather Keep, Weirmoor
