

Letter of debt

Let it be known that the Brossa Trading Co. has supplied the sum of four crowns five rings for the purposes of purchasing supplies and materials to maintain the imperial soldiers of Castle Fenrose, namely Cabots Company.

The sum of five crowns is to be paid upon the occasion that the Zenate next provides the funds to maintain the Company or such time that funds become available to the Captain of the Company.

Further to our discussions it can be acceptable for payment to be effected with goods and or services to the value specified.

On the 15th day of the 4th month in the year 362,

Letter of debt

Let it be known that the Brossa Trading Co. has supplied the sum of two crowns five rings for the purposes of purchasing supplies and materials to maintain the imperial soldiers of Castle Fenrose, namely Cabots company.

The sum of three crowns is to be paid upon the occasion that the Zenate next provides the funds to maintain the Company or such time that funds become available to the Captain of the Company.

Further to our discussions it can be acceptable for payment to be effected with goods and or services to the value specified.

On the 1st day of the 5th month in the year 362,

Promissory note

The honourable Manzour family from Damata has supplied the sum of one crown = 20 rings to the imperial soldiers of Castle Fenrose, namely Jack Cabot's Company.

The sum is to be paid back upon the next provision of funds by the Senate to the Company.
On the 5th day of the 1st month in the year 366,

Promissory note

The honourable Manzour family from Damata has supplied the sum of five crowns = 100 rings to the imperial soldiers of Castle Fenrose, namely Jack Cabot's Company.

The sum is to be paid back upon the next provision of funds by the Senate to the Company.
On the 16th day of the 1st month in the year 367,

Letter of debt

Let it be known that the Guild of the Crimson Fox has supplied the sum of three crowns one ring for the purpose of supplying the imperial soldiers of Castle Fenrose, namely C a b o t s C o m p a n y.

The sum is to be paid back with 5% interest per year in due time.

Further to our discussions it can be acceptable for payment to be effected with goods and or services to the value specified.

On the 15th day of the 4th month in the year 373, in Tassato,

Banknote

Let it be known that the Guild of Artists of Sarvos has lend the sum of three crowns for the purpose of supplying the imperial soldiers of Castle Fenrose, namely C a b o t s C o m p a n y.

On the 21st day of the 4th month in the year 373, in Sarvos,