

Thane Iron Osric, of the Sigehold,

First and foremost, thank you. Thank you for your show of loyalty to the winterfolk of Skarsind and to myself. The mine has been sufficiently repaired and the first ingots of green iron have been brought to the surface. Pass on my thanks to Tyr Brenna.

I trust that, when we move north, to raid the Thule you will be with us. I extend an invitation to you to come to Crow's Ridge and feast with us. Spread word of our need, of the need of Skarsind.
