

Ravenseer,

You won't know me. You might have come across my colleague Gethyn. If you're anything like the Seers of Ishall I met in Runegrott a short time past you might already know what I'm about to say. I hope as much for its a strange ask to be making as a stranger to you.

If you've not heard of The Rising Tide, ask Heilyn Brownyn's Rest – we've worked with them closely. Last season, Gethyn was in Rumi's talking to some of your 'Mark with a taste for Prosperity, and the matter of Weirwood and whether or not it might help the Kallavesi swamps came up.

We don't know that it will, but we have managed to persuade two Great Forest Orcs to come to Anvil. And it seems, according to the runes, and bones and visions of Ishall, that it's you who should choose five from the 'Mark to begin a friendship, if friendship there will be between you all.

Their names are Elik and Savra, they're coming to the Navarr main fire in the woods at around a quarter before midday on the Saturday of the Solstice. The message we got from the mystics was there will be five pools to be tasted by the roots each rich with its own secret sounds. And that you should choose the drums that that when struck ring out in the best and most mellow notes, each one layering with the other. I'll also tell you myself that from what I know of Elik, they may be a warrior themselves, but they've also great respect for the wisdoms of those who understand military campaigns, but do not fight. As for Savra, unlike most Great Forest Orcs, they sound like a mystic themselves, half the time.

I don't think you need to be there yourself, but if you did want to be I'm sure you could,

I hope it goes well,

In Prosperity

Rayna

Uberto, Northbound Trademaster

Congratulations on your appointment! We, the Kulsdottir of Kalpaheim met with several other members of the Trade Network and their guests last summit, to discuss plans to mutually boost our Prosperity, and to enjoy some gaming. To our distress, the invitation to the Northbound Trademaster was mis-delivered by our courier, so your predecessor did not get to join us. Happily we are able to rectify that and invite you.

Will you and a guest join us on the Saturday evening of the Equinox, we shall gather at The Sovereign's Head at about half past nine. We are bringing our favourite game of risk, the Chocolate Game, which we will play either there, or at a location the network members choose. We expect the Network members, one or two additional guests from last time, who contributed greatly to discussions and plans, and hopefully a few more of our Wintermark friends.

The game is one with great prizes and great debts to play for. All who play sign contracts to agree to abide by their luck. But there are no tricks! The list of forfeits and boons is presented to all before they decide to sign.

Alongside the gaming, my colleague and friend, Aelric hopes you will also discuss the planned extension to the network, an additional road from Kalpaheim to Seren, and how to get the statement of principle needed in the Prosperity assembly to turn this into a real opportunity. The Kulsdottir have a wain or two to contribute. If you wish to know more, you could seek out Benny, the Kalpaheim Tradeholder.

I look forward to meeting you

Nils Jokela, Kulsdottir's of Kalpaheim

OOO note: Please tear off to take this letter IC

No blame IC or OOO should fall on the player or character who received your predecessor's invite last summit, this was a PD admin error and it would have been very difficult for the player to realise what they received was not meant for them.

Umarth, Thane,

We're glad you wrote, and glad that the Ravens will take on the casting of this ritual. Let us hope it will turn out to be both a boon for Hahnmark and a renewal of opportunities for all of us to experience the learning that comes from the Empty Chamber.

Each of us has been travelling a little this season – in fact I have been in the Mourn, though with the Bloodcloaks, not your army, and so our arrivals at Anvil may not be together. It is Osrin, we think, who has the best chance of arriving first, and they'll head to Lumi's to meet you, bringing the Pallid Charm with them.

They hope to be there between around eight and half past eight on the first evening of the Equinox, they'll also know more then, we hope, about when myself and Snowdreamer think that we will be around.

If others ask, let them know that we think it is likely we will try and attend the Navarr's songs and stories on one or other evening of the Equinox. Snowdreamer in particular has become fascinated by tales and songs that might contain knowledge of what the deepest winter is, to different peoples and also by tales of the origin of the Kallavesi.

And then of course, we'll need to find out if you wish to perform the ritual this season or next.

Until the Equinox,
May we all learn what it is to be unshattered.

Auden

Solas

It is good to write to you again fellow dreamers. And I include all of you that through Wisdom seek Telos or the Great Dance, even the one of you who did not join us last Solstice.

As I said I would be, I am travelling among the Sarcophan, those great traders of drugs, to see if I can find a new source of Awakenings so we may continue our experiments. I have a lead, an agent who I believe speaks for a maker of the drug. They tell me that I will need to pay in Crystal Fire, for the maker requires a supply and it is hard for them to get. I am hoping that you will find information for me - where, from whom and at what price might such things be brought, and then bring that knowledge to The Shade tea shop, in Urizen on Sunday of the Solstice at a quarter to two in the afternoon. My spiremate Lauren, illuminate and great lover of the connections between people will meet you there.

Please come, even if you have nothing to report, or send word at least, if you would like to join me in another dreaming at the Winter Solstice. And please also bring word of at least one other, who you think would understand what it means to seek answers in Wisdom and in dreams, so that I may invite them to our next dreaming. Bring them to meet Lauren if you wish, or not, provided you bring their name so that I may add them to my correspondence.

For my Urizeni friends I have an extra request. I am much interested in the proposed Monastery of the Four Winds. In it, I see a place to have Eudokia's original principles recognised and valued. Will you pursue those goals there?

And, since it is from Marchers we took inspiration - perhaps it might be among Marchers that you could look for others to join us in our dreaming. A suggestion, not a necessity.

In Wisdom and In Searching
Varinius

Cut or tear off this strip to have a completely IC document

Silk Farkas

It is good to write to you again fellow dreamers. And I include all of you that through Wisdom seek Telos or the Great Dance, even the one of you who did not join us last Solstice.

As I said I would be, I am travelling among the Sarcophan, those great traders of drugs, to see if I can find a new source of Awakenings so we may continue our experiments. I have a lead, an agent who I believe speaks for a maker of the drug. They tell me that I will need to pay in Crystal Fire, for the maker requires a supply and it is hard for them to get. I am hoping that you will find information for me - where, from whom and at what price might such things be brought, and then bring that knowledge to The Shade tea shop, in Urizen on Sunday of the Solstice at a quarter to two in the afternoon. My spiremate Lauren, illuminate and great lover of the connections between people will meet you there.

Please come, even if you have nothing to report, or send word at least, if you would like to join me in another dreaming at the Winter Solstice. And please also bring word of at least one other, who you think would understand what it means to seek answers in Wisdom and in dreams, so that I may invite them to our next dreaming. Bring them to meet Lauren if you wish, or not, provided you bring their name so that I may add them to my correspondence.

For my Urizeni friends I have an extra request. I am much interested in the proposed Monastery of the Four Winds. In it, I see a place to have Eudokia's original principles recognised and valued. Will you pursue those goals there?

And, since it is from Marchers we took inspiration - perhaps it might be among Marchers that you could look for others to join us in our dreaming. A suggestion, not a necessity.

In Wisdom and In Searching
Varinius

Cut or tear off this strip to have a completely IC document

Saamy Splitroot

It is good to write to you again fellow dreamers. And I include all of you that through Wisdom seek Telos or the Great Dance, even the one of you who did not join us last Solstice.

As I said I would be, I am travelling among the Sarcophan, those great traders of drugs, to see if I can find a new source of Awakenings so we may continue our experiments. I have a lead, an agent who I believe speaks for a maker of the drug. They tell me that I will need to pay in Crystal Fire, for the maker requires a supply and it is hard for them to get. I am hoping that you will find information for me - where, from whom and at what price might such things be brought, and then bring that knowledge to The Shade tea shop, in Urizen on Sunday of the Solstice at a quarter to two in the afternoon. My spiremate Lauren, illuminate and great lover of the connections between people will meet you there.

Please come, even if you have nothing to report, or send word at least, if you would like to join me in another dreaming at the Winter Solstice. And please also bring word of at least one other, who you think would understand what it means to seek answers in Wisdom and in dreams, so that I may invite them to our next dreaming. Bring them to meet Lauren if you wish, or not, provided you bring their name so that I may add them to my correspondence.

For my Urizeni friends I have an extra request. I am much interested in the proposed Monastery of the Four Winds. In it, I see a place to have Eudokia's original principles recognised and valued. Will you pursue those goals there?

And, since it is from Marchers we took inspiration - perhaps it might be among Marchers that you could look for others to join us in our dreaming. A suggestion, not a necessity.

In Wisdom and In Searching
Varinius

Henarian

It is good to write to you again fellow dreamers. And I include all of you that through Wisdom seek Telos or the Great Dance, even the one of you who did not join us last Solstice.

As I said I would be, I am travelling among the Sarcophan, those great traders of drugs, to see if I can find a new source of Awakenings so we may continue our experiments. I have a lead, an agent who I believe speaks for a maker of the drug. They tell me that I will need to pay in Crystal Fire, for the maker requires a supply and it is hard for them to get. I am hoping that you will find information for me - where, from whom and at what price might such things be brought, and then bring that knowledge to The Shade tea shop, in Urizen on Sunday of the Solstice at a quarter to two in the afternoon. My spiremate Lauren, illuminate and great lover of the connections between people will meet you there.

Please come, even if you have nothing to report, or send word at least, if you would like to join me in another dreaming at the Winter Solstice. And please also bring word of at least one other, who you think would understand what it means to seek answers in Wisdom and in dreams, so that I may invite them to our next dreaming. Bring them to meet Lauren if you wish, or not, provided you bring their name so that I may add them to my correspondence.

For my Urizeni friends I have an extra request. I am much interested in the proposed Monastery of the Four Winds. In it, I see a place to have Eudokia's original principles recognised and valued. Will you pursue those goals there?

And, since it is from Marchers we took inspiration - perhaps it might be among Marchers that you could look for others to join us in our dreaming. A suggestion, not a necessity.

In Wisdom and In Searching
Varinius

Cut or tear off this strip to have a completely IC document

Marcus Larksong

It is good to write to you again fellow dreamers. And I include all of you that through Wisdom seek Telos or the Great Dance, even the one of you who did not join us last Solstice.

As I said I would be, I am travelling among the Sarcophan, those great traders of drugs, to see if I can find a new source of Awakenings so we may continue our experiments. I have a lead, an agent who I believe speaks for a maker of the drug. They tell me that I will need to pay in Crystal Fire, for the maker requires a supply and it is hard for them to get. I am hoping that you will find information for me - where, from whom and at what price might such things be brought, and then bring that knowledge to The Shade tea shop, in Urizen on Sunday of the Solstice at a quarter to two in the afternoon. My spiremate Lauren, illuminate and great lover of the connections between people will meet you there.

Please come, even if you have nothing to report, or send word at least, if you would like to join me in another dreaming at the Winter Solstice. And please also bring word of at least one other, who you think would understand what it means to seek answers in Wisdom and in dreams, so that I may invite them to our next dreaming. Bring them to meet Lauren if you wish, or not, provided you bring their name so that I may add them to my correspondence.

For my Urizeni friends I have an extra request. I am much interested in the proposed Monastery of the Four Winds. In it, I see a place to have Eudokia's original principles recognised and valued. Will you pursue those goals there?

And, since it is from Marchers we took inspiration - perhaps it might be among Marchers that you could look for others to join us in our dreaming. A suggestion, not a necessity.

In Wisdom and In Searching
Varinius

Cut or tear off this strip to have a completely IC document

Winifred Blackhawk

It is good to write to you again fellow dreamers. And I include all of you that through Wisdom seek Telos or the Great Dance, even the one of you who did not join us last Solstice.

As I said I would be, I am travelling among the Sarcophan, those great traders of drugs, to see if I can find a new source of Awakenings so we may continue our experiments. I have a lead, an agent who I believe speaks for a maker of the drug. They tell me that I will need to pay in Crystal Fire, for the maker requires a supply and it is hard for them to get. I am hoping that you will find information for me - where, from whom and at what price might such things be brought, and then bring that knowledge to The Shade tea shop, in Urizen on Sunday of the Solstice at a quarter to two in the afternoon. My spiremate Lauren, illuminate and great lover of the connections between people will meet you there.

Please come, even if you have nothing to report, or send word at least, if you would like to join me in another dreaming at the Winter Solstice. And please also bring word of at least one other, who you think would understand what it means to seek answers in Wisdom and in dreams, so that I may invite them to our next dreaming. Bring them to meet Lauren if you wish, or not, provided you bring their name so that I may add them to my correspondence.

For my Urizeni friends I have an extra request. I am much interested in the proposed Monastery of the Four Winds. In it, I see a place to have Eudokia's original principles recognised and valued. Will you pursue those goals there?

And, since it is from Marchers we took inspiration - perhaps it might be among Marchers that you could look for others to join us in our dreaming. A suggestion, not a necessity.

In Wisdom and In Searching
Varinius

Cut or tear off this strip to have a completely IC document

Aster

It is good to write to you again fellow dreamers. And I include all of you that through Wisdom seek Telos or the Great Dance, even the one of you who did not join us last Solstice.

As I said I would be, I am travelling among the Sarcophan, those great traders of drugs, to see if I can find a new source of Awakenings so we may continue our experiments. I have a lead, an agent who I believe speaks for a maker of the drug. They tell me that I will need to pay in Crystal Fire, for the maker requires a supply and it is hard for them to get. I am hoping that you will find information for me - where, from whom and at what price might such things be brought, and then bring that knowledge to The Shade tea shop, in Urizen on Sunday of the Solstice at a quarter to two in the afternoon. My spiremate Lauren, illuminate and great lover of the connections between people will meet you there.

Please come, even if you have nothing to report, or send word at least, if you would like to join me in another dreaming at the Winter Solstice. And please also bring word of at least one other, who you think would understand what it means to seek answers in Wisdom and in dreams, so that I may invite them to our next dreaming. Bring them to meet Lauren if you wish, or not, provided you bring their name so that I may add them to my correspondence.

For my Urizeni friends I have an extra request. I am much interested in the proposed Monastery of the Four Winds. In it, I see a place to have Eudokia's original principles recognised and valued. Will you pursue those goals there?

And, since it is from Marchers we took inspiration - perhaps it might be among Marchers that you could look for others to join us in our dreaming. A suggestion, not a necessity.

In Wisdom and In Searching
Varinius

Halkeyon of Sojourn's Heart

It is good to write to you again fellow dreamers. And I include all of you that through Wisdom seek Telos or the Great Dance, even the one of you who did not join us last Solstice.

As I said I would be, I am travelling among the Sarcophan, those great traders of drugs, to see if I can find a new source of Awakenings so we may continue our experiments. I have a lead, an agent who I believe speaks for a maker of the drug. They tell me that I will need to pay in Crystal Fire, for the maker requires a supply and it is hard for them to get. I am hoping that you will find information for me - where, from whom and at what price might such things be brought, and then bring that knowledge to The Shade tea shop, in Urizen on Sunday of the Solstice at a quarter to two in the afternoon. My spiremate Lauren, illuminate and great lover of the connections between people will meet you there.

Please come, even if you have nothing to report, or send word at least, if you would like to join me in another dreaming at the Winter Solstice. And please also bring word of at least one other, who you think would understand what it means to seek answers in Wisdom and in dreams, so that I may invite them to our next dreaming. Bring them to meet Lauren if you wish, or not, provided you bring their name so that I may add them to my correspondence.

For my Urizeni friends I have an extra request. I am much interested in the proposed Monastery of the Four Winds. In it, I see a place to have Eudokia's original principles recognised and valued. Will you pursue those goals there?

And, since it is from Marchers we took inspiration - perhaps it might be among Marchers that you could look for others to join us in our dreaming. A suggestion, not a necessity.

In Wisdom and In Searching
Varinius

Cut or tear off this strip to have a completely IC document

Jaikwyn Stockheard

It is good to write to you again fellow dreamers. And I include all of you that through Wisdom seek Telos or the Great Dance, even the one of you who did not join us last Solstice.

As I said I would be, I am travelling among the Sarcophan, those great traders of drugs, to see if I can find a new source of Awakenings so we may continue our experiments. I have a lead, an agent who I believe speaks for a maker of the drug. They tell me that I will need to pay in Crystal Fire, for the maker requires a supply and it is hard for them to get. I am hoping that you will find information for me - where, from whom and at what price might such things be brought, and then bring that knowledge to The Shade tea shop, in Urizen on Sunday of the Solstice at a quarter to two in the afternoon. My spiremate Lauren, illuminate and great lover of the connections between people will meet you there.

Please come, even if you have nothing to report, or send word at least, if you would like to join me in another dreaming at the Winter Solstice. And please also bring word of at least one other, who you think would understand what it means to seek answers in Wisdom and in dreams, so that I may invite them to our next dreaming. Bring them to meet Lauren if you wish, or not, provided you bring their name so that I may add them to my correspondence.

For my Urizeni friends I have an extra request. I am much interested in the proposed Monastery of the Four Winds. In it, I see a place to have Eudokia's original principles recognised and valued. Will you pursue those goals there?

And, since it is from Marchers we took inspiration - perhaps it might be among Marchers that you could look for others to join us in our dreaming. A suggestion, not a necessity.

In Wisdom and In Searching
Varinius

Vygur Gorrenska

We've not met, I'm writing to a number of folk based in Hahnmark. You're all either skilled at mediating, from halls known for a bit of trading, or you're dedicated to Prosperity and if you've been coming here a lot longer than myself, its still not been forever – like those Senators who took over just after Britta, that were in power til not so long ago. Anyway, my point is I'm interested in people who like wealth, who care about Hahnmark and who aren't too set in their ways. If that's you, I hope you'll come and meet with me at Lumi's Teahouse on the Friday evening of the Equinox. I'll be there a half turn or so after the summit starts.

I want to talk to you about the Northern Trade Network, and plans to make it grow. I'm from the trading hall Kulsdottir of Kalpaheim – they used to be famous – I'm pretty new to them, I won't bother you with the background – anyway last summit Nils and Aelric came to Anvil, and they – we – are supporting a plan the Northern Trade Network has to expand down to Seren in Miaren. My interest is in making sure that that road starts in Kalpaheim. I want to tell you all about it, so you can talk with Benny – that's the Kalpaheim Tradeholder, I've not met him, I think Nils and Aelric did but they aren't that good with names, so I'm not sure.

Anyway, Benny and the other Northern Trade Network folk are likely to need some help getting the Prosperity Assembly behind the plan. We, that's the Kulsdottir want to help – but we're not able to spend that much time in Anvil – so I thought I'd make my first help talking to you. That's kind of long winded isn't it. I do better face to face. Anyway, come and see me if you like, no worries if you don't.

Crosbie, trader from the Kulsdottir of Kalpaheim

Deerlah Yrhara

We've not met, I'm writing to a number of folk based in Hahnmark. You're all either skilled at mediating, from halls known for a bit of trading, or you're dedicated to Prosperity and if you've been coming here a lot longer than myself, its still not been forever – like those Senators who took over just after Britta, that were in power til not so long ago. Anyway, my point is I'm interested in people who like wealth, who care about Hahnmark and who aren't too set in their ways. If that's you, I hope you'll come and meet with me at Lumi's Teahouse on the Friday evening of the Equinox. I'll be there a half turn or so after the summit starts.

I want to talk to you about the Northern Trade Network, and plans to make it grow. I'm from the trading hall Kulsdottir of Kalpaheim – they used to be famous – I'm pretty new to them, I won't bother you with the background – anyway last summit Nils and Aelric came to Anvil, and they – we – are supporting a plan the Northern Trade Network has to expand down to Seren in Miaren. My interest is in making sure that that road starts in Kalpaheim. I want to tell you all about it, so you can talk with Benny – that's the Kalpaheim Tradeholder, I've not met him, I think Nils and Aelric did but they aren't that good with names, so I'm not sure.

Anyway, Benny and the other Northern Trade Network folk are likely to need some help getting the Prosperity Assembly behind the plan. We, that's the Kulsdottir want to help – but we're not able to spend that much time in Anvil – so I thought I'd make my first help talking to you. That's kind of long winded isn't it. I do better face to face. Anyway, come and see me if you like, no worries if you don't.

Crosbie, trader from the Kulsdottir of Kalpaheim

Æðelric Dagursson

We've not met, I'm writing to a number of folk based in Hahnmark. You're all either skilled at mediating, from halls known for a bit of trading, or you're dedicated to Prosperity and if you've been coming here a lot longer than myself, its still not been forever – like those Senators who took over just after Britta, that were in power til not so long ago. Anyway, my point is I'm interested in people who like wealth, who care about Hahnmark and who aren't too set in their ways. If that's you, I hope you'll come and meet with me at Lumi's Teahouse on the Friday evening of the Equinox. I'll be there a half turn or so after the summit starts.

I want to talk to you about the Northern Trade Network, and plans to make it grow. I'm from the trading hall Kulsdottir of Kalpaheim – they used to be famous – I'm pretty new to them, I won't bother you with the background – anyway last summit Nils and Aelric came to Anvil, and they – we – are supporting a plan the Northern Trade Network has to expand down to Seren in Miaren. My interest is in making sure that that road starts in Kalpaheim. I want to tell you all about it, so you can talk with Benny – that's the Kalpaheim Tradeholder, I've not met him, I think Nils and Aelric did but they aren't that good with names, so I'm not sure.

Anyway, Benny and the other Northern Trade Network folk are likely to need some help getting the Prosperity Assembly behind the plan. We, that's the Kulsdottir want to help – but we're not able to spend that much time in Anvil – so I thought I'd make my first help talking to you. That's kind of long winded isn't it. I do better face to face. Anyway, come and see me if you like, no worries if you don't.

Crosbie, trader from the Kulsdottir of Kalpaheim

Morghott

We've not met, I'm writing to a number of folk based in Hahnmark. You're all either skilled at mediating, from halls known for a bit of trading, or you're dedicated to Prosperity and if you've been coming here a lot longer than myself, its still not been forever – like those Senators who took over just after Britta, that were in power til not so long ago. Anyway, my point is I'm interested in people who like wealth, who care about Hahnmark and who aren't too set in their ways. If that's you, I hope you'll come and meet with me at Lumi's Teahouse on the Friday evening of the Equinox. I'll be there a half turn or so after the summit starts.

I want to talk to you about the Northern Trade Network, and plans to make it grow. I'm from the trading hall Kulsdottir of Kalpaheim – they used to be famous – I'm pretty new to them, I won't bother you with the background – anyway last summit Nils and Aelric came to Anvil, and they – we – are supporting a plan the Northern Trade Network has to expand down to Seren in Miaren. My interest is in making sure that that road starts in Kalpaheim. I want to tell you all about it, so you can talk with Benny – that's the Kalpaheim Tradeholder, I've not met him, I think Nils and Aelric did but they aren't that good with names, so I'm not sure.

Anyway, Benny and the other Northern Trade Network folk are likely to need some help getting the Prosperity Assembly behind the plan. We, that's the Kulsdottir want to help – but we're not able to spend that much time in Anvil – so I thought I'd make my first help talking to you. That's kind of long winded isn't it. I do better face to face. Anyway, come and see me if you like, no worries if you don't.

Crosbie, trader from the Kulsdottir of Kalpaheim

Mercy Kannask

We've not met, I'm writing to a number of folk based in Hahnmark. You're all either skilled at mediating, from halls known for a bit of trading, or you're dedicated to Prosperity and if you've been coming here a lot longer than myself, its still not been forever – like those Senators who took over just after Britta, that were in power til not so long ago. Anyway, my point is I'm interested in people who like wealth, who care about Hahnmark and who aren't too set in their ways. If that's you, I hope you'll come and meet with me at Lumi's Teahouse on the Friday evening of the Equinox. I'll be there a half turn or so after the summit starts.

I want to talk to you about the Northern Trade Network, and plans to make it grow. I'm from the trading hall Kulsdottir of Kalpaheim – they used to be famous – I'm pretty new to them, I won't bother you with the background – anyway last summit Nils and Aelric came to Anvil, and they – we – are supporting a plan the Northern Trade Network has to expand down to Seren in Miaren. My interest is in making sure that that road starts in Kalpaheim. I want to tell you all about it, so you can talk with Benny – that's the Kalpaheim Tradeholder, I've not met him, I think Nils and Aelric did but they aren't that good with names, so I'm not sure.

Anyway, Benny and the other Northern Trade Network folk are likely to need some help getting the Prosperity Assembly behind the plan. We, that's the Kulsdottir want to help – but we're not able to spend that much time in Anvil – so I thought I'd make my first help talking to you. That's kind of long winded isn't it. I do better face to face. Anyway, come and see me if you like, no worries if you don't.

Crosbie, trader from the Kulsdottir of Kalpaheim

Rasmus Mattisson

We've not met, I'm writing to a number of folk based in Hahnmark. You're all either skilled at mediating, from halls known for a bit of trading, or you're dedicated to Prosperity and if you've been coming here a lot longer than myself, its still not been forever – like those Senators who took over just after Britta, that were in power til not so long ago. Anyway, my point is I'm interested in people who like wealth, who care about Hahnmark and who aren't too set in their ways. If that's you, I hope you'll come and meet with me at Lumi's Teahouse on the Friday evening of the Equinox. I'll be there a half turn or so after the summit starts.

I want to talk to you about the Northern Trade Network, and plans to make it grow. I'm from the trading hall Kulsdottir of Kalpaheim – they used to be famous – I'm pretty new to them, I won't bother you with the background – anyway last summit Nils and Aelric came to Anvil, and they – we – are supporting a plan the Northern Trade Network has to expand down to Seren in Miaren. My interest is in making sure that that road starts in Kalpaheim. I want to tell you all about it, so you can talk with Benny – that's the Kalpaheim Tradeholder, I've not met him, I think Nils and Aelric did but they aren't that good with names, so I'm not sure.

Anyway, Benny and the other Northern Trade Network folk are likely to need some help getting the Prosperity Assembly behind the plan. We, that's the Kulsdottir want to help – but we're not able to spend that much time in Anvil – so I thought I'd make my first help talking to you. That's kind of long winded isn't it. I do better face to face. Anyway, come and see me if you like, no worries if you don't.

Crosbie, trader from the Kulsdottir of Kalpaheim

Arnor

We've not met, I'm writing to a number of folk based in Hahnmark. You're all either skilled at mediating, from halls known for a bit of trading, or you're dedicated to Prosperity and if you've been coming here a lot longer than myself, its still not been forever – like those Senators who took over just after Britta, that were in power til not so long ago. Anyway, my point is I'm interested in people who like wealth, who care about Hahnmark and who aren't too set in their ways. If that's you, I hope you'll come and meet with me at Lumi's Teahouse on the Friday evening of the Equinox. I'll be there a half turn or so after the summit starts.

I want to talk to you about the Northern Trade Network, and plans to make it grow. I'm from the trading hall Kulsdottir of Kalpaheim – they used to be famous – I'm pretty new to them, I won't bother you with the background – anyway last summit Nils and Aelric came to Anvil, and they – we – are supporting a plan the Northern Trade Network has to expand down to Seren in Miaren. My interest is in making sure that that road starts in Kalpaheim. I want to tell you all about it, so you can talk with Benny – that's the Kalpaheim Tradeholder, I've not met him, I think Nils and Aelric did but they aren't that good with names, so I'm not sure.

Anyway, Benny and the other Northern Trade Network folk are likely to need some help getting the Prosperity Assembly behind the plan. We, that's the Kulsdottir want to help – but we're not able to spend that much time in Anvil – so I thought I'd make my first help talking to you. That's kind of long winded isn't it. I do better face to face. Anyway, come and see me if you like, no worries if you don't.

Crosbie, trader from the Kulsdottir of Kalpaheim

Uгла Vardovich

We've not met, I'm writing to a number of folk based in Hahnmark. You're all either skilled at mediating, from halls known for a bit of trading, or you're dedicated to Prosperity and if you've been coming here a lot longer than myself, its still not been forever – like those Senators who took over just after Britta, that were in power til not so long ago. Anyway, my point is I'm interested in people who like wealth, who care about Hahnmark and who aren't too set in their ways. If that's you, I hope you'll come and meet with me at Lumi's Teahouse on the Friday evening of the Equinox. I'll be there a half turn or so after the summit starts.

I want to talk to you about the Northern Trade Network, and plans to make it grow. I'm from the trading hall Kulsdottir of Kalpaheim – they used to be famous – I'm pretty new to them, I won't bother you with the background – anyway last summit Nils and Aelric came to Anvil, and they – we – are supporting a plan the Northern Trade Network has to expand down to Seren in Miaren. My interest is in making sure that that road starts in Kalpaheim. I want to tell you all about it, so you can talk with Benny – that's the Kalpaheim Tradeholder, I've not met him, I think Nils and Aelric did but they aren't that good with names, so I'm not sure.

Anyway, Benny and the other Northern Trade Network folk are likely to need some help getting the Prosperity Assembly behind the plan. We, that's the Kulsdottir want to help – but we're not able to spend that much time in Anvil – so I thought I'd make my first help talking to you. That's kind of long winded isn't it. I do better face to face. Anyway, come and see me if you like, no worries if you don't.

Crosbie, trader from the Kulsdottir of Kalpaheim

Lodwick Hardin

We've not met, I'm writing to a number of folk based in Hahnmark. You're all either skilled at mediating, from halls known for a bit of trading, or you're dedicated to Prosperity and if you've been coming here a lot longer than myself, its still not been forever – like those Senators who took over just after Britta, that were in power til not so long ago. Anyway, my point is I'm interested in people who like wealth, who care about Hahnmark and who aren't too set in their ways. If that's you, I hope you'll come and meet with me at Lumi's Teahouse on the Friday evening of the Equinox. I'll be there a half turn or so after the summit starts.

I want to talk to you about the Northern Trade Network, and plans to make it grow. I'm from the trading hall Kulsdottir of Kalpaheim – they used to be famous – I'm pretty new to them, I won't bother you with the background – anyway last summit Nils and Aelric came to Anvil, and they – we – are supporting a plan the Northern Trade Network has to expand down to Seren in Miaren. My interest is in making sure that that road starts in Kalpaheim. I want to tell you all about it, so you can talk with Benny – that's the Kalpaheim Tradeholder, I've not met him, I think Nils and Aelric did but they aren't that good with names, so I'm not sure.

Anyway, Benny and the other Northern Trade Network folk are likely to need some help getting the Prosperity Assembly behind the plan. We, that's the Kulsdottir want to help – but we're not able to spend that much time in Anvil – so I thought I'd make my first help talking to you. That's kind of long winded isn't it. I do better face to face. Anyway, come and see me if you like, no worries if you don't.

Crosbie, trader from the Kulsdottir of Kalpaheim

Leofric

We've not met, I'm writing to a number of folk based in Hahnmark. You're all either skilled at mediating, from halls known for a bit of trading, or you're dedicated to Prosperity and if you've been coming here a lot longer than myself, its still not been forever – like those Senators who took over just after Britta, that were in power til not so long ago. Anyway, my point is I'm interested in people who like wealth, who care about Hahnmark and who aren't too set in their ways. If that's you, I hope you'll come and meet with me at Lumi's Teahouse on the Friday evening of the Equinox. I'll be there a half turn or so after the summit starts.

I want to talk to you about the Northern Trade Network, and plans to make it grow. I'm from the trading hall Kulsdottir of Kalpaheim – they used to be famous – I'm pretty new to them, I won't bother you with the background – anyway last summit Nils and Aelric came to Anvil, and they – we – are supporting a plan the Northern Trade Network has to expand down to Seren in Miaren. My interest is in making sure that that road starts in Kalpaheim. I want to tell you all about it, so you can talk with Benny – that's the Kalpaheim Tradeholder, I've not met him, I think Nils and Aelric did but they aren't that good with names, so I'm not sure.

Anyway, Benny and the other Northern Trade Network folk are likely to need some help getting the Prosperity Assembly behind the plan. We, that's the Kulsdottir want to help – but we're not able to spend that much time in Anvil – so I thought I'd make my first help talking to you. That's kind of long winded isn't it. I do better face to face. Anyway, come and see me if you like, no worries if you don't.

Crosbie, trader from the Kulsdottir of Kalpaheim

Senators, Inquisitor,

I'm imposing, I know, taking liberties. You won't know me. But in strength we share, and I'm leaning heavily on our nation for bond.

You might have met Gethyn, my colleague, and I hope you're proud that there are Navarri among the first of The Rising Tide as we begin to make a stir in the Empire. Anyway, Gethyn meant to write you that it might happen, but it may have slipped his mind.

We've arranged for two Great Forest Orc friends of mine to come to the Navarr fireplace, on the Saturday morning of the Equinox, at a quarter to midday. They're coming to meet and maybe begin to get to know Wintermark, through a delegation the Ravenseer will choose. I know it sounds odd, we got caught up with some Kallavesi from Ishall. But I think it's right.

Only thing is they want one of you there, or, my Great Forest friends, Elik and Savra have said, if all of you happen to be away fighting, then someone, with a token from you that you will stand in their stead, will serve.

Am sorry to trouble you with this by letter, Gethyn or I might make it, but maybe we won't also.

I hope it goes well - I think they might be going to ask the Wintermark to show them they can trust them by pledging their support to the Navarr against the Vallorn. Maybe? Who knows what will come.

I hope it goes well,

In Prosperity

Rayna

Senators, Inquisitor,

I'm imposing, I know, taking liberties. You won't know me. But in strength we share, and I'm leaning heavily on our nation for bond.

You might have met Gethyn, my colleague, and I hope you're proud that there are Navarri among the first of The Rising Tide as we begin to make a stir in the Empire. Anyway, Gethyn meant to write you that it might happen, but it may have slipped his mind.

We've arranged for two Great Forest Orc friends of mine to come to the Navarr fireplace, on the Saturday morning of the Equinox, at a quarter to midday. They're coming to meet and maybe begin to get to know Wintermark, through a delegation the Ravenseer will choose. I know it sounds odd, we got caught up with some Kallavesi from Ishall. But I think it's right.

Only thing is they want one of you there, or, my Great Forest friends, Elik and Savra have said, if all of you happen to be away fighting, then someone, with a token from you that you will stand in their stead, will serve.

Am sorry to trouble you with this by letter, Gethyn or I might make it, but maybe we won't also.

I hope it goes well - I think they might be going to ask the Wintermark to show them they can trust them by pledging their support to the Navarr against the Vallorn. Maybe? Who knows what will come.

I hope it goes well,

In Prosperity

Rayna

Character name: Rowyn of the Waystone Path
Cut or tear off this strip to have a completely IC document

Senators, Inquisitor,

I'm imposing, I know, taking liberties. You won't know me. But in strength we share, and I'm leaning heavily on our nation for bond.

You might have met Gethyn, my colleague, and I hope you're proud that there are Navarri among the first of The Rising Tide as we begin to make a stir in the Empire. Anyway, Gethyn meant to write you that it might happen, but it may have slipped his mind.

We've arranged for two Great Forest Orc friends of mine to come to the Navarr fireplace, on the Saturday morning of the Equinox, at a quarter to midday. They're coming to meet and maybe begin to get to know Wintermark, through a delegation the Ravenseer will choose. I know it sounds odd, we got caught up with some Kallavesi from Ishall. But I think it's right.

Only thing is they want one of you there, or, my Great Forest friends, Elik and Savra have said, if all of you happen to be away fighting, then someone, with a token from you that you will stand in their stead, will serve.

Am sorry to trouble you with this by letter, Gethyn or I might make it, but maybe we won't also.

I hope it goes well – I think they might be going to ask the Wintermark to show them they can trust them by pledging their support to the Navarr against the Vallorn. Maybe? Who knows what will come.

I hope it goes well,

In Prosperity

Rayna