

CURSE

Curse ID: 29130

Your character is CURSED.

While under this curse, you cannot recover hero points or personal mana naturally, or through the use of a Dragonbone Symbol, or an enchanted aura such as The Chamber of Delights. You recover any used mana and hero points at the start of each month and other effects that restore hero points or mana points such as the Philtres of War, Philtres of the High Peaks and Crystaltender's Vestment work normally.

In addition you experience a powerful roleplaying effect; whenever you sleep you suffer nightmares of being hunted through a dark wasteland by an implacable, inescapable foe or foes. These dreams are accompanied by a frantic tune, but you struggle to remember exactly how it goes each time you awake. Whenever you are alone, you feel as if something unspeakable is closing in on you, especially if it is night time.
