About the House of Seven Mirrors

The House of Seven Mirrors is a political salon founded by Lisabetta Giacomi von Holberg.

Those gathered seek to increase their knowledge through discussion of new ideas and ways in which to put those ideas into practice. Those attending agree to abide by the Rule of Seven Mirrors:

Those meeting can speak of what they learn, but will not reveal the identities of those here, nor their loyalties and affiliations, save under question by a Magistrate or under Synod Inquisition.

Our Rule is intended to allow attendees to express ideas - some which might be undiplomatic or controversial - in an atmosphere of free and frank exchange, with a view to putting them into practice and thereby furthering the Empire's destiny.

The House's main chamber contains seven specially-commissioned mirrors. Each represents one of the seven Virtues, and draws on the hearth magic of Holberg to encourage all those present to reflect the Virtues as they speak.
