

Hi Folks,

If you're seeing this, then you're probably looking for one of the old share agreements that were drawn up for Unknown Worlds back when we were looking for a site. They're defunct now that our offer has been accepted and we expect to complete soon. So please don't use any of the old paperwork, or direct anyone to any of the old paperwork.

There is now a single share agreement to sign – which you can access here:

<https://www.profounddecisions.co.uk/resources/downloads/Shareholders-Agreement.pdf>

When completing the form, please make sure you complete all relevant sections:

==Share Agreement==

Front Page - Your name

Page 3 - Today's Date

Page 10 - Name, address and number of shares of each person you are buying shares for (just yourself if it's just you).

Page 11 - The occupation of the witness in the Witness Section

Page 11 - The address of the witness in the Witness Section

If you can reply by email, please make sure you send them to admin@unknownworlds.co.uk - that goes to Graeme and myself. He has got everything set up to track everything, so we make sure all the paperwork is logged and checked.

Once you're happy with the paperwork, and you're ready - then you can ebank your investment to:

Barclays Bank

Unknown Worlds limited

Sort: 20-51-08

Acct: 73578003

Ref: Your Name

Thanks!

Matt P,

PD.
